VISION STATEMENT

As a faith community we believe and profess that “God so loved the world that he gave us his only son” (Jn.3:16) God invites us to be one with the Trinity.

In response to the divine invitation the parish of St. Michael the Archangel gives praise, thanks, and obeys the word spoken by “the word made flesh”.

- “Do this in memory of me” (Lk. 22:19)

We celebrate the sacraments to encounter the Lord Jesus, especially the Eucharist, in which many become one and become increasingly the Body of Christ in this world.

- “Go teach all nations and baptize them...” (Mt. 28:19)

We commit ourselves to live the gospel. In doing so we proclaim, teach, and model a way of life for all in this rural community.

- “Love one another as I have loved you” (Jn.13:34)

Convinced of the beauty and dignity of the human family, we minister to the needs of both our faith community and the wider community.

PARISH NEWS

Pittsburgh Pirates Game Update

We are so excited about the overwhelming response to the upcoming baseball game. The bus is filled and we apologize to anyone that wasn't able to reserve a ticket. Our hope is to possibly attend a game in the fall.

For those attending the game, we will gather in the Beloved Disciple parking lot at 4:45 and we will depart at 5:00. If paying by check, please write baseball game or Pirates on the memo line. Another keynote is PNC Park is a cashless stadium, they only accept debit and credit cards. They do have reverse kiosks available; you put cash in, and you will get a card to use for purchases. Who knew!!!!

We will pass out peanuts and water on the bus. As long as they are unopened, you are allowed to bring them into the stadium.

LETS GO BUCKS!!

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
John 6:51-58

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, "Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?" Later, another asked, "Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?" Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today's Gospel, Jesus declares: "My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink." (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth. The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus' words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it "bread" or "wine." Nor do we say, "a piece of Jesus" or even "Jesus." We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us — not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire.

— Father John Muir
