*It involves a dedicated and generous community of people to make Holy Week a meaningful time at St. Sebastian. Thank you to Fr. Bill, Deacon Dave and Fr. Ginter for the beautiful Masses and services throughout the week. Our most grateful appreciation to our wonderful musicians— Eric Maddox, Angie Wilson, Melissa Ayotte and the members of the choir for the enriching the week with beautiful music. We also thank our lectors, ushers and those who helped with the Palm Sunday and Holy Thursday processions. Special appreciation to Marian Previtali, Gretchen Harris, Arlene Killpack, Estella Morales and Linda Graber for the beautiful flowers in the church and the Altar of Repose. Also, our gratitude to the Women’s Club for their service projects to prepare the church during Lent. Many thanks to all who brought soups and participated in our Lenten Soup Suppers on Fridays. Easter Blessings to All! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Christian steward approaches life with an “Easter vision,” rooted in gratitude for the salvation our Lord has won for us through His death and Resurrection. Today’s readings on this Divine Mercy Sunday remind us that this vision is meant to shape our daily lives and that we can place complete trust in the mercy of God to lead us, step by step, toward heaven.

It can be difficult to keep our focus on heaven when earthly concerns — job stress, family struggles, health problems and political division — press in around us. At times, we can become like the Apostle Thomas in today’s Gospel, struggling to believe amid disappointment and uncertainty. Absent when Jesus first appeared to the other Apostles after the Resurrection, Thomas refused to accept their testimony that they had “seen the Lord.”

He insisted that he would not believe unless he placed his finger into the nail marks and his hand into Christ’s side. Yet Thomas’ doubts did not repel our Lord — they drew Him near in an extraordinary way. Jesus saw beyond the doubt to the pain beneath it. He did not condemn Thomas, but calmed his fears and invited him to touch His Sacred Wounds. What amazing grace.

When we are tempted to doubt, we need only seek the Lord — in prayer, in the sacraments and through the encouragement of our Christian community. Just as He did for Thomas, our Lord will mercifully restore our Easter vision and fill us with His joy and peace.
