In Memoriam—Please pray for the repose of the soul of Karen Raccanello who passed away recently.

First Holy Communion—Today we celebrate with our students and their families as they receive their First Holy Communion. This is such a special and meaningful day in their lives.

We also welcome Ashley as she is received into the Catholic Church and receives the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. Ashley worked hard to prepare for this day and we celebrate with her also. Please keep our students and their families in your prayers.

Join us for Coffee and Cake after the 9:00 am Mass today, April 19th on the plaza outside of church to celebrate our First Holy Communion students.

Sacrament of Confirmation—Next Saturday, April 25th our Confirmation students will be confirmed at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption by Archbishop Cordileone.

Please keep the students and their families in your prayers as they prepare for this very important day.

Today's readings focus on a theme of "sojourning." As Christian stewards, we know our lives are a sojourn toward the ultimate destination of heaven.

Our Gospel passage today describes the sojourn of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. The two are dejected and despondent after Jesus' death. They knew Jesus personally. They had heard the Gospel message directly from His lips. They heard the testimony of the women who discovered our Lord's empty tomb and saw a vision of angels announcing He was alive. They had been informed by other disciples who went to the tomb that all was exactly as the women reported. How much more obvious could the Good News be?

And yet, at times, the reaction of the two disciples describes our own stewardship journey, doesn't it? We have the fullness of the Catholic faith, the power of the sacraments, and the support of our parish family. Yet, we often lose our way. We fail to see all the gifts we have been given. We lack trust in the perfect goodness and almighty power of God.

But notice what happens to the two men when their eyes are opened once again, and they recognize Jesus in the Eucharist — the "breaking of the bread." They are transformed! Their hearts are set on fire with love for the Lord and for their faith. They recall that their hearts began "burning within" as the Lord was explaining the Scriptures to them. When we find we have lost our way, we can go to the same sources as the two disciples on the road to Emmaus — the Scriptures and the Eucharist.

In this Easter season, resolve to feast deeply on these two sources of grace. They are the fuel that will propel us on our journey toward heaven.
