Parish Mission Statement: The mission of St. Sebastian Parish is the salvation of souls.

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

A big THANK YOU to everyone who donated to the Marin Pregnancy Clinic Baby Shower in October. A very generous amount of $2,540 was raised and will be a big help to the Clinic in assisting them to continue to support mothers in need. Your generosity is very much appreciated!

This weekend is the second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Nearly 38 million people in the U.S. live in poverty. Your support helps programs that address poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country.

We will have two Masses on Thanksgiving Day. Our daily Mass at 7:00 am and a Mass for Thanksgiving Day at 9:00 am.

Please join us for one of these Mass celebrations to give thanks to God for our many blessings.

Please keep in your prayers all those in our parish who have passed away this past year. We also remember all of our family members and friends who have passed away.

Fr. Paul Perry, Serena Greer, Elvira Lindemann, Jane Fair, John Keane, Cary Martin, John Driscoll, William Wilka and Maja Peceli.

All Souls Envelopes—All Souls envelopes can be found on the tables around the church. Please place your envelope in the collection boxes with the names of those you would like to have remembered in prayer throughout the month of November. All names and envelopes will be placed on the altar all month.

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings offer a sober reminder that this life is not our aim and that God's justice will triumph in the end. Now is the time to get our priorities in order, putting God above all else as his faithful stewards.

Our Lord brings home the urgency of right priorities in our Gospel passage from Luke, reminding the people around him who were looking at the temple nearby, "All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Our Lord reminds us that all in this world is passing. We must keep our focus on eternity.

Yet before the eternal bliss of heaven, we should expect to be tried and tested. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name."

Sounds scary. But if you are living a stewardship way of life, there is nothing to fear. You have a plan in place. All you need to do is stick with it. Put our Lord first in your time, with your talents, and through your use of treasure. This way of life is not easy. But Jesus promises it will lead to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance, you will secure your lives."

Onward, Christian stewards, the struggle is worth the joy that awaits!
