

WE'RE HIRING!

Community Support Workers

Promoting Independence, Health & Well-being

Join our friendly team as a Community Support Worker and help people live independently, achieve their goals, and enjoy the life they choose. Whether you're experienced or new to support, we'll provide the training and support you need to succeed.

Why Join Optimal Support?

- › Flexible hours That Work For You
- › No personal care and we do not administer or prompt medication
 - › Full training provided
- › Career Development Opportunities
- › Competitive Pay & Staff Rewards
- › Rewarding Work where every day matters

SCAN TO APPLY

Do you have a caring nature and want a career that makes a real difference?

Join our friendly team as a Support Worker and help people live independently, achieve their goals, and enjoy the life they choose. Whether you're experienced or new to care, we'll provide the training and support you need to succeed.

A day in the life of a support worker

- › Support people to live independently and achieve their personal goals
 - › Follow personalised care and support plans
 - › Help with shopping, errands, and attending appointments
 - › Encourage independence by developing everyday life skills, including cooking, budgeting, and managing paperwork
 - › Support people to maintain a safe, clean, and comfortable home
 - › Provide advocacy, companionship, and emotional support
 - › Encourage social connections and community participation
 - › Explore work, education, and training opportunities with the people you support
 - › Build positive, trusting relationships
 - › Promote wellbeing and positive daily routines
 - › Complete accurate daily records
-

What we're looking for:

Compassion & Empathy, a genuine desire to help others

Strong Communication Skills and active listening skills

A Team Player who's flexible and reliable

Experience in a support role (Desirable but not essential)

A Full UK Driving License (Essential)

Be a Real-Life Superhero!

"You don't need a cape. Just a big heart and the desire to help."