

WE'RE HIRING!

The Role: Support Worker

Do you have a compassionate heart and a desire to help others live more independently?

If you're someone who truly cares about people and wants a fulfilling career where every day matters, we want to meet you!

We're looking for dedicated and enthusiastic Support Workers to join our friendly team. You'll be supporting individuals to live their best lives; Encouraging independence, promoting well-being, and helping them reach their personal goals.

A day in the life of a support worker

- › Grocery shopping, errands, and attending appointments
- › Advocacy, companionship, and emotional support
- › Keeping a safe, clean, and comfortable home
- › Building life skills like cooking, budgeting, and managing paperwork
- › Exploring work, education, and training opportunities
- › Encouraging social connection and community involvement

What you'll be doing:

- › Following personalised care and support plans
- › Encouraging Independence in daily life
- › Promoting Well being and positive routines
- › Building trust-based, respectful relationships
- › Writing daily reports

What we're looking for:

- › Compassion & Empathy, a genuine desire to help others
- › Strong Communication Skills and active listening skills
- › A Team Player who's flexible and reliable
- › Experience in a support role (Desirable but not essential)
- › A Full UK Driving License (Desired)

Why Join Us?

- › Flexible hours That Work For You
- › No Personal Care or Medication
- › Full training provided
- › Support for Career Progression
- › You'll Feel Valued
- › We Celebrate Your Success
- › Competitive Pay & Staff Rewards
- › Fulfilling Job

Be a Real-Life Superhero!

"You don't need a cape. Just a big heart and the desire to help."

