PARISH VISION & MISSION

Vision

We are called to active discipleship to live the values taught by our Lord Jesus Christ through acts of faith, hope, and charity. As active disciples, we engage in a "mission" mode of evangelization, forming disciples and inspiring others to do the same.

Strategic Vision

We are a thriving community of disciples who see their role in the life and evangelizing mission of the Church, sustaining a parish school that continuously grows and increases its enrollment every year, and supporting a facility that architecturally highlights the beauty and spirituality of its broader community.

Mission

- We seek to be a community of active disciples who:
- Are diverse, inclusive, and collaborative (Welcoming)
- Continuously grow and share their faith with all generation of spiritual seekers (Word)
- Are involved in a creative, vibrant liturgy (Worship)
- Are involved in areas of service that impact its broader community and the world (Witness)
- Have a strong sense of stewardship, evident in the parish's healthy finances, committed organization, and self sustained ministries (Strengthening)
- Are unafraid to grow by remembering the past, celebrating the present, and believing in the future

Also, it is for parishioners who are homebound, i.e. their health or medical conditions could be compromised when they leave home. Pastoral visit comprise of the respectful distribution of the Holy Eucharist to the sick; and as well, as giving them emotional, social, and spiritual support through profound and thoughtful prayers.

Anointing of the Sick: In this Church's Sacrament, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. LENTEN REGULATIONS

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics fourteen (14) years of age and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting is to be observed by all Catholics who are eighteen (18) years of age but not yet fifty-nine (59) years of age on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Those who are bound to fast may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

All Catholics who have received their first communion must receive holy communion at least once a year during the Easter season (the "Easter duty").

Catholics are also obligated to confess any serious (mortal) sins at least once a year. The Lenten season is an ideal time in which to fulfill this obligation.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus was not afraid to confront iniquity wherever he encountered it, and his zeal for righteousness was so strong it looked like anger as he drove the moneychangers from the temple. Pray that, with that same devotion and care, he will cleanse our hearts from sin.

LITURGY & WORSHIP

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT MARCH 3, 2024

First Reading:

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:
"I, the LORD am your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery.
You shall not have other gods besides me."
(Ex 20:1-3)

Psalm:

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.
(Ps 19)

Second Reading:

We proclaim Christ crucified,
a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,
but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike,
Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.
(1 Cor 1:23-24)

Gospel:

Jesus answered and said to them,
"Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."
(Jn 2:19)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Our readings call us to roll up our sleeves and persevere through the remainder of Lent by committing to a more faithful life with Christ.

In today's Gospel, Jesus purifies the temple area because it is being misused as a marketplace. He becomes angry at their lack of reverence for God. He spills the coins of the money changers and overturns tables, saying, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace."

Jesus witnessed the way people mistreated the temple — the place to worship God and God alone. He drives out evil and works to purify all that is sinful in that place. This is what Jesus wants to do for us this Lenten season. He wants to remove all impurity and evil in our lives and hearts so that we may have a proper dwelling place for the Holy Spirit. Let us ask ourselves, what areas of our life need cleansing? Let us name those areas and invite Jesus to purify us. He became man to carry our burdens and wipe away our sins. He has given us boundless mercy, but we must do our part to seek it and commit to living a more faithful life as a disciple of Christ. With this knowledge, let us seek to be purified from our sins so that our hearts might be a true temple of the Holy Spirit.

This season of Lent is only halfway done — there is still time to work through our shortcomings and purify our hearts for Easter morning. But let us not waste another moment. Let us name our shortcomings, seek God's mercy and invite Him to transform our hearts.

Jesus and the Eucharist Small Group Study

The Jesus and the Eucharist small group study is now on-going in our parish on Sundays, 2:00-4:00pm in Rm. 2-A in the Pavalkis Hall

Jesus and the Eucharist is a dynamic, seven-session study designed to help one fall deeper in love with our Eucharistic Lord. This immerses one in the beauty of our faith in an intimate small group setting, hears from some of the most brilliant voices in Catholicism, and explores the mystery of the Eucharist anew as part of the National Eucharistic Revival.

This ready-made video-based study running about two hours aims to create fertile ground in our parish for the blossoming of a truly Eucharistic culture.

Can't join us in the parish? Below are the steps to do this with your family, relatives, and friends (from middle school students to adults) in the comfort of your home.

Steps to start your own group

1. Confirm participation of your desired group members.
2. Form small groups from confirmed participants. Each small group may have eight members. This is the optimal number so everyone may have enough time to speak/share. Less is okay.
3. Assign a table facilitator/s from your group. Each group should have a facilitator.
4. The chosen table facilitator/s should watch a short online training video through this link: <https://www.dsj.org/eucharistic-revival/small-groups-study-and-faith-sharing/> and go to the Facilitator Training. There is also a Guide to Facilitating Table Discussion document under the training video. This training should be done before gathering the group and before the group starts the study.
5. Each study session has a handout which can be downloaded for distribution to each participant from the same link: <https://www.dsj.org/eucharistic-revival/small-groups-study-and-faith-sharing/> and go to Facilitators, and under English Resources click Download Handout under the appropriate Session Number.
6. When everyone is ready, the facilitator can access the study videos through the same link: <https://www.dsj.org/eucharistic-revival/small-groups-study-and-faith-sharing/> and go to Facilitators, and under English Resources click View Video under the appropriate Session Number

OUR LENTEN JOURNEY

The Gift of Repentance: Embracing Grace and Renewal During Lent

As we continue our Lenten journey, we delve deeper into the profound theme of repentance, a cornerstone of our Faith that invites us to turn our hearts back to God. In this season of grace and renewal, repentance serves as a guiding light, illuminating the path toward spiritual transformation and reconciliation with our Creator.

Repentance is more than just acknowledging our sins; it is a sacred act of humility and contrition, where we recognize our need for God's mercy and forgiveness. It is a journey inward, a reflection of our desire to realign our lives with the will of God and to live in harmony with His divine plan.

Throughout Scripture, we encounter countless examples of individuals who experienced the transformative power of repentance. From the prodigal son who returned to his father's embrace to the woman caught in adultery who received Jesus' words of forgiveness, these stories remind us of God's boundless love and mercy, eagerly awaiting our return.

During Lent, we are called to embrace repentance wholeheartedly, to examine our hearts and lives with honesty and humility. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we encounter the merciful presence of Christ, who welcomes us with open arms and offers us the gift of forgiveness and grace.

Repentance is not a one-time event but a continuous journey of conversion and renewal. It requires a commitment to ongoing self-examination, a willingness to seek forgiveness, and a resolve to amend our ways. As we journey through Lent, let us embrace the gift of repentance with grateful hearts, trusting in God's unfailing love and mercy to guide us on the path toward spiritual renewal and transformation.

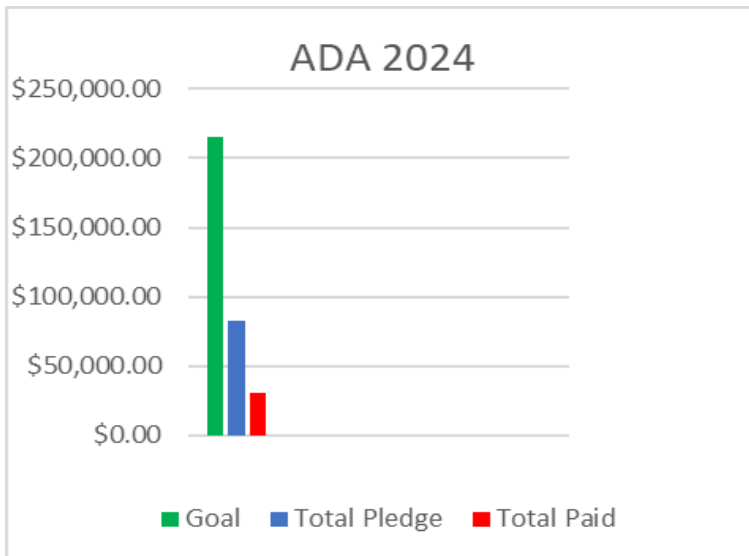

May this season of Lent be a time of profound grace and reconciliation, as we open our hearts to God's mercy and allow His love to heal and transform us from within. Let us walk this sacred journey of repentance together, confident in the promise of God's redeeming love and the hope of new life found in Christ.
