Sacred Heart Shrine Tree of Life

The St. John the Baptist Parishioners invite you to share in our vision by becoming a living, lasting part of the Tree of Life.

Since Biblical times the Tree of Life stood for growth, nourishment and all that is good in our lives. What more fitting than a special event that merits lasting remembrance, St. John's Tree of Life offers you this unusual opportunity to perpetuate the memory of those special moments,

Your contribution will be an act of lasting importance. Becoming part of Tree of Life is a most loving way of memorializing someone special to you or saying thank you,

"Every good tree brings forth good fruit"

Memorialized in the Tree of Life

The Gift of Life

Your gift of love helps St. John today, tomorrow, by remembering yesterday.

Everyone who passes our Tree of Life is pleased by its beauty and is filled with emotion.

St. John's Tree of Life recognizes your significant gift in a permanent and meaningful manner. This handsome sculpture is displayed in the prayer room, at the rear of St. John's Church.

A Lasting Tribute

Each person named in the Tree of Life will receive Spiritual Benefits which include:

- Mass devoted to the Annual Feast of the Sacred Heart
- First Fridays Devotion
- Month of June honoring St. John the Baptist
- Month of November honoring the deceased.

HOW WILL THE SHRINE BENEFIT FROM ANY OFFERING?

Your offering will be used to benefit St. John the Baptist General Fund.
