

OLYMPIA GYMNASTICS BOOSTER CLUB, INC, BYLAWS OGBC BYLAWS – May 14, 2024
--

I. Name

- A. The name of the 501(C)(3) non-profit organization shall be Olympia Gymnastics Booster Club, Inc.

II. Purpose For Which The Organization is Organized

- A. The purpose for which Olympia Gymnastics Booster Club, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as OGBC) has been organized is to promote and help support competitive amateur gymnastics. OGBC has established two objectives for the fulfillment of its purpose:
1. Promotion of amateur competitive gymnastics
 - a. To promote the physical, mental, and moral development of members who participate in competitive gymnastics activities;
 - b. To encourage, assist, and support the development of a gymnastics program which shall include pre-team, exhibition, and competitive gymnastics opportunities for participant members;
 - c. To encourage and assist in the development of a sense of fair play, honesty, fair competition, and true sportsmanship on the part of each participant;
 - d. To provide an effective and efficient means of communication between OGBC members and the community, teams, and gymnastics members.
 2. Aid and support of the OGA competitive gymnastics program
 - a. Generate funds to:
 - i. Help protect athletes and their families from the high costs associated with travel to distant competitions.
 - ii. Pay costs associated with competitive teams, specifically:
 - OGBC operating expenses
 - Coaches USAG membership fees
 - OGA coaches' travel to meets, clinics, and rules meetings associated with the gymnastics program
 - OGA Coach's compensation during meets and clinics
 - Meet and clinic entry fees as designated by OGA.
 - Gymnasts travel to Development Program Level 10 National Championship
 - Gym fees

- b. Promote an atmosphere of congeniality and unity in the support of the competitive goals.
- c. Host and sponsor competitive gymnastic meets, clinics, and similar functions.

III. Membership

A. Membership Responsibility

- 1. Every family of a competitive gymnast(s) (pre-team and up) at Olympia Gymnastics Academy is required to pay the designated dues and fees each year, as scheduled, to help defray the cost of OGBC operating and program expenses.
- 2. Parents of competitive levels, to be determined each year by Olympia Gymnastics Academy, are required to participate in OGBC sponsored activities.
- 3. Parents of non-competitive levels, to be determined each year by Olympia Gymnastics Academy, are not required, but are invited and encouraged to participate in the OGBC sponsored activities.
- 4. Parents will be responsible for their gymnast's USAG fee(s) and/or renewal, directly to USAG.

B. Classes of Membership

- 1. Voting members. The parent(s) of an Olympia Gymnastics Academy team member shall be a voting member(s) of the OGBC and is (are) entitled to one vote per family on all matters put to the vote before the General Membership.
- 2. Non-Voting Members. All other individuals, families, or organizations who wish to participate in the activities sponsored by the OGBC shall be non-voting members.

C. Membership shall be made available to any individual, family, or organization who wishes to participate in the activities sponsored by OGBC.

D. Annual membership in OGBC shall run from September 1st through August 31st of the succeeding year.

E. In order for a gymnast to compete, the family membership of any participant must be in good standing. "Good standing" shall mean that all financial obligations towards OGBC have been paid and there are no infractions of the rules by the participant.

IV. Governing Board

A. Power - The government of the OGBC shall be vested in the Governing Board. The Governing Board shall have the power to initiate and enforce the Bylaws and the Operating Rules and Procedures of OGBC.

- B. Board size - The Governing Board shall consist of nine (9) to twelve (12) persons elected from the voting membership and in special circumstances from the non-voting membership. The positions on the Governing Board shall consist of:
1. Officers:
