

On the northern boundary – the railway line running through Morningside Station.

On the west – Colinton Road where it crosses the railway continuing into Colinton Mains Drive to the Tesco Roundabout, then continuing south south-east across country to the Dreghorn Link to the City By-Pass.

On the south – cuts across country from the Dreghorn Link to Swanston Golf Course and around the south perimeter of Swanston Golf Course and Swanston village cutting across country in a south easterly direction to meet the Lothian Burn at Hillend Car Park and along the access road until it meets the Bigger Road (A702). Continuing south on the A702 until the triple junction where the A702 meets the A703 and Old Pentland Road.

On the east – from the triple junction on the A702 cutting across country in a straight line in a northerly direction, crossing the Edinburgh City Bypass (A720) passing the east end of Winton Loan and north by Morton House crossing Frogston Road West onto Mounthooly Loan. Continuing along Mounthooly Loan to the west perimeter of Mortonhall Golf Course, Braid Hills Golf Course, crossing Braid Hills Drive and continuing along Midmar Drive and around the North West boundary of Hermitage of Braid and Blackford Hill Local Nature Reserve until it meets Oswald Road, continuing along Oswald Road until it crosses the railway.