

LANGUAGES ROADSHOW

2024 ONLINE MENTORING PROGRAM

Our teacher mentoring program is the perfect combo of the Languages professional learning you've always wished you could attend, the department meeting you've always wished you could be a part of and the teacher training you probably didn't receive.

WHAT IS THIS PROGRAM?

Run for the first time in 2023, Languages Roadshow is now taking applications for our 2024 program.

- 3 month online program
- A mix of presentation style sessions, follow up readings and activities and live discussion calls
- Facilitated by Kelly Harrison, with guests
- Designed for any Languages teacher who is looking for a group to bounce ideas off and discuss pedagogy
- On-demand sessions to watch whenever suits you
- Interspersed with live discussion calls where you can have all your questions answered
- All sessions recorded
- Over 15 hours of professional learning tailored to your needs

WHAT WILL BE COVERED?

Curriculum, pedagogy and programming

How to engage more students in Languages

Advocating for Languages

Technology and time saving practices

“ Over the past 5 years, I've run hundreds of hours of professional learning for Languages teachers and this program is a culmination of what I've learned about what Languages teachers need most. ”

Kelly Harrison, owner of Languages Roadshow

IS THIS PROGRAM FOR ME?

If you tick any of these boxes, then I think this program would be something you'd enjoy.

- You love doing PD but haven't been able to find something specific enough to your work as a Languages teacher
- You want to know more about language acquisition and Languages teaching pedagogy
- You want support with implementing your new curriculum
- You are not a Languages specialist but accidentally expressed interest or let slip that you speak another language - now you need help!
- You are a high school trained Languages teacher now teaching primary Languages (or vice-versa) and are madly trying to work it all out as you go
- You're the only (or one of the only) Languages teacher in your area or school and you want to make connections with other like-minded educators.
- You've got other Languages teachers around you at school but still feel disconnected. Maybe the other teachers aren't 'your people' or are at a totally different stage of their career.
- You're interested in introducing CLIL pedagogy and need personalised support
- You want new ideas to liven up your school's Languages program and you need more than a single day of PD to develop these ideas.

Our program covers a wide variety of topics, but the central theme is always student engagement and how to make Languages matter at your school.

FEEDBACK FROM 2023 PARTICIPANTS

“The program was invaluable - I got so many great ideas that I could implement in the classroom and I found it really useful to get advice and support about so many different topics such as strategies to grow my school's program, organising host school visits, CLIL and Chat GPT. Although I think teachers at any stage in their career would benefit from the program, I would definitely recommend it to other early career teachers as it is fantastic to get such useful support and advice when you are still finding your feet. I feel that this program has really influenced the way I teach Year 7-10 as I am now much more focused on teaching using engaging content rather than focusing too heavily on grammar and I think this will help me grow the program in the long term.”

“I loved the variety of topics we covered!”

“Kelly has a knack for bringing together ideas and speakers that are super relevant to Languages teachers. She’s a passionate advocate and I really appreciated the level of specific support I got in this program - far beyond anything I’ve received through any other PD.”

“I learnt more from this program than I did through any other PD - probably even more than I learnt at uni.”

“The Languages Roadshow course made me realise how many amazing options I have for improving my program, and made me feel capable of doing that.”

As the facilitator, here are the things I loved most about the program:

The small group size meant I got to know everyone and could write sessions with specific teachers in mind

The whole program was really relaxed

I got to spend time researching and talking about lots of different ways to improve student proficiency and engagement in Languages and learnt a lot about what’s happening for teachers in different schools.

BONUS OFFER

Sign up for mentoring and receive free access to our online course on Content and Language Integrated Learning

Integrate to Maximise pulls together the information and resources you need to implement CLIL pedagogy at your school. The course is designed specifically for the Australian context and is based on the lived experiences of Australian teachers and evidence about what works in the Languages classroom. In this course we'll cover the most important aspects of CLIL theory and you'll receive all the advice and resources you need to get started with CLIL.

Normally $385

Free for all mentoring participants

***Note: if you have already purchased this course, we'll deduct the amount you paid from the cost of the mentoring program

FAQs

Is this something I pay for or should I ask school to pay?

Firstly, ask school to pay for this. This program is 100% aligned to your core business as a teacher – assessment, pedagogy, Australian Curriculum alignment, behaviour management, growing a Languages program etc – all of this benefits your school and your students.

Many teachers in our 2023 intake were pleasantly surprised when their schools offered full or partial funding for this program. It's always worth asking.

How do I sign up?

- Email kelly@languagesroadshow.com.au to register your interest
- I'll answer any questions and if you are happy to proceed, we'll send you an invoice
- Your spot will be secured once a deposit has been received

When do I need to sign up by?

Payment / deposit required by end of Term 4, 2023. Online CLIL course content will be available immediately. Mentoring on-demand content will be available in January 2024. Live sessions will happen throughout Term 1, possibly into Term 2.

Will I get a certificate?

Yes. Certificates will be provided for all hours.

Are all the sessions recorded?

Yes, absolutely everything we run will be recorded.
