LANGUAGES
ROADSHOW

How is this event useful for your school?

Australia is the 6th most linguistically diverse nation yet more often than not this rich asset is treated in as an issue to overcome, as opposed to a powerful way to enhance student achievement and wellbeing.

In this session, Kelly Harrison and Dr Robyn Moloney will help you to uncover simple, inexpensive ways your school can leverage language and culture to benefit ALL students.

Creating school environments where multilingualism and intercultural understanding are valued has huge, untapped potential in Australia in terms of literacy outcomes, enhanced cognitive function and student wellbeing.

This event is for all educators, not just languages teachers so invite your colleagues!

Join me to gain confidence in understanding the role multilingualism and intercultural understanding has in supporting student outcomes across the board.

Certificates will be provided.
