BAND BIO

Curious Grace & Black Rabbit plays indie rock powered by raw emotion and heady themes.

Rooted in Irish rock with indie Celtic rhythm and soul, CG&BR features the work of husband-wife songwriting team Tom and Mary Erangey. With two front-women, this six-piece band delivers a big, glorious sound powered by tight harmonies, symphonic keys and groovy rhythms to get you moving.

#WORLDFIRE #WONDERLAND

CG&BR is a band for this moment.

They've earned Chicago and college radio airplay and critic shout-outs for Fat Cats, Fire Brigade and Make It Rain, from their #WorldOnFire album, produced by Rich Rankin. Fresh from playing to a crowd of 1,100+ at Chicago's House of Blues, which hosted the I AM Fest, CG&BR recorded its EP Wonderland, including songs that have become recent crowd favorites: Astrophysics, Too Bad About You, and Inglorious.

MEET THE BAND

CG&BR is a psychedelic blend.

Tree-huggers and gun owners; yogis and craft brewers; immigrants, activists and homebodies. CG&BR is steeped in Celtic rhythm and soul, retro rock, jazz and spoken word. Get to know the band and their music in these videos: Homegrown Magic, and Let's Get Live Irish!

ACHIEVEMENTS

Critics love CG&BR's new music!

"Fat Cats opens with some chunky riffs and when the vocals kick in, a bluesy alt rock feel quickly emerges. It doesn't stop the band's creative music takes us even further; curious indeed!" Beehive Candy

Fire Brigade has the "energy of mid-90s power pop/alternative hits," striking a "fun balance of pulsating guitars and soaring harmonies." Music. Defined.

"Chicago-based funky art rock sextet Curious Grace & Black Rabbit take on rampant consumerism with their new single Fat Cats, a prog rock anthem. Protest songs don't need to be simple singalongs—it can be done with smart chord changes and complex rhythmic structures as well." Here Comes the Flood Music Blog
