Payment Policy

Effective November 16, 2023

The staff and management of our funeral home are dedicated to providing personalized care and professional services to all families that we serve. Our payment policy presented below is designed to prevent any misunderstandings, and ultimately keep costs down for all families.

In keeping with that philosophy, we feel a responsibility to offer several different payment options to those we serve, recognizing that in some cases, the family has had little time to prepare for the costs associated with funeral services. We encourage frank discussion pertaining to these matters, and we will attempt to assist you in any way possible.

1. Payment is due at the conclusion of the arrangement conference.
2. All services must have financial arrangements for payment prior to any public announcement of funeral details.

Your funeral Director will provide you with a receipt for any payments made. Listed below are our firms' options with regard to payment. You may choose one, or a combination of the following:

- Cash, personal check, bank check, or money order which will be provided at the time of arrangement; Federal law states that all cash payments in excess of $10,000 must be reported to the IRS by filing IRS forms 8300; this includes cashier's checks drawn on personal accounts and travelers' checks. These laws exist to help the government prevent terrorist activities and other financial crimes. Additional information will be requested to complete the IRS-required form.

- Credit Card that will be processed at the time of arrangement

- Irrevocable Life Insurance Assignment - All policies will be processed by C&J Financial, with an executed Direct Beneficiary Assignment. The charges for this service will be part of the proceeds from C&J Financial.

- Prepaid Funeral Arrangement

Due to truth in lending laws, our funeral home is not a lending institution and is therefore unable to extend credit or financing. Please be advised that where payment has not been received as agreed, a late payment charge could be levied at the highest rate available under the law on the unpaid balance. All costs of collection for the late payment, including collection fees will be the responsibility of the family representative.

Note: It is not the policy of the Funeral Home to invoice estates. Under certain circumstances where the decedent's estate must stand the burden of paying funeral expenses, we ask that a member of the family pay funeral expenses and file their claim for reimbursement with the decedent's estate. Because each estate is different and can be complex and time-consuming, we cannot offer to bill the decedent's estate.
