Dear Friends at Community of Christ,

Isn't it a joy to be able to begin to resume activities that we once took for granted before the pandemic? I thank God for the gradual, safe reopening that enables those who desire to be present for in person worship and Bible studies. I thank God for the ability to bring God's promises to bear in person as we gather for worship and a meal of fellowship after the death of a loved one. I thank God for the ability to gather with teens for conversation, laughter, and pizza. I thank God for the growing number who are assisting with Sunday morning worship and visiting those who are ill or otherwise "shut in". I thank God for tenacious leadership that seeks to be faithful in challenging days, including attending a Saturday morning Retreat designed to strengthen healthy, faithful leadership. I thank God for you who support the ministry of Community of Christ through your participation in worship (physically present or online!), your prayers, your generous contribution of time in support of specific ministries, your financial support and your grace and good humor. The other day our Administrative Assistant Michelle sported a shirt with the word, "Gratitude", emblazoned on the front. Amen! Regardless of the specifics of our circumstances we have much for which we get to be grateful. Sometimes it's particularly important to remember that.

Two Bible Classes Offer

At 9:15 am, on Sunday mornings, I have begun a class, A Lutheran Welcome, designed to provide a review of the Lutheran understanding of the Christian faith. Those who may be interested in becoming a part of Community of Christ certainly are invited as well as those who may have forgotten some of what they learned in Catechism Class. Know that there is/will be plenty of stimulating conversation. The class is offered in the library.

On Thursday afternoons, 1pm, I am leading a class which is reviewing the Scripture lessons appointed for the next week (as well as pursuing other fascinating conversations to which the lessons may direct us!). If you are available, please come!

A Combined October/November Newsletter

During the next weeks our Administrative Assistant Michelle Gebhart will need to address some health concerns and so will be unable to be present in the office. Carol Wiemken graciously has agreed to provide office help during this leave. As we prepare for Michelle's absence, we are making some adjustments for the next weeks, including combining the newsletters for October and November. We are grateful to Michelle for her attentiveness to initiating/completing necessary tasks for the next months and assure her of our prayers for her and her family. In case of emergencies, please contact the church office where voice messages will be daily monitored or contact me directly (419-344-4200).

Visitation Ministry and Assisting Ministers

We are delighted by the cadre of folk who have agreed to serve in Visitation Ministry, including bringing Holy Communion from the Table in Worship to those who for whatever reasons are not able to attend Sunday morning worship. We commissioned this group of visitors on Sunday, October 3. If you or someone you know would be open to a visit by a lay visitor, please do not hesitate to notify the church office so we can arrange that. Typically, a pastor will make such calls every 3-4 months.

Beginning in October we also are re-introducing Assisting Ministers. Typically, they will assist with the Readings and Prayers. Like the pastor an Assisting Minister will wear a white alb which serves to remind each of us of our baptism and that we have been clothed with the righteousness of Christ. We welcome confirmed youth to also serve as Assisting Ministers and children to serve as Readers. Contact Pastor Lohrmann or the church office if you wish to serve in this capacity!

Welcoming Children

The Gospel lessons in recent Sundays remind us of the manner in which Jesus welcomes children. Can we do anything less? What is more precious than impacting the life and faith of a child or youth? Lainie Davis, Lorri Britsch, Lori Malicoate and Kristen Schuchmann are among those who are reimagining how the congregation might strengthen its ministry to children and youth. The youth activities for the next months are one result. A shared catechism class for youth together with Zion (Waterville), Christ (Dowling) and St. Paul (Haskins) is another emerging activity. Do your gifts include the possibility of working with youth? If so, consider the possibility of embracing this ministry.

Our welcome of children includes affirming those who were confirmed during 2020. Because of the pandemic, our youth were not able to participate in a public affirmation of their baptisms on the day of their Confirmation. We would like to offer such recognition on Reformation Sunday, October 31, in the 10:30am Service. We ask youth and their families to indicate their planned presence by contacting the church office by Monday, October 25, 419-877-0607.

Sharing Generously

Sharing generously is characteristic of a Christian's life. Consider the words of St. Paul: "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich." It is a joy when a congregation reflects that spirit. Such was the case on September 11, God's Work, Our Hands weekend. Under the leadership of Sarah Rockwell, a group from Community of Christ travelled to the Tarta Bus Station to give sack lunches and engage in conversation as a part of the Food for Thought Ministry.

At our Friday evening, September 24, Synod Assembly (attended via Zoom by Kevin Swagler, Sarah Rockwell, and myself), Bishop Daniel Beaudoin encouraged our synod to engage in a year end effort to provide significant financial support to the Lutheran Disaster Response Fund to enable a strong ELCA national and international response to disasters. Lutherans have a reputation for staying around when everyone else has gone home. You may share generously by writing a check or otherwise making a gift to Community of Christ and designating it, Lutheran Disaster Response.

October/November 2021

In November, you will be invited to reflect on the manner in which you will support the ministry of our Lord Jesus through this congregation in the year. As we prepare to do so, we will invite the sharing of stories with respect to how the Holy Spirit as used this congregation to impact your life and the lives of so many others. By the grace of God, we together will experience what it means to share generously.

Another Step in the Time of Transition

During the 10:30 am worship service in September 19, the Transition Committee, chaired by Kim Jones, was recognized as its work draws to an end. At the same time, the Call Committee, consisting of Brian Jones, Bea Ludwig, Lisa Alleman, Jeff Baden, Amanda Reisner, Cammie Abraham, and Matt Britsch, was commissioned. The Call Committee will take the substantive work of the Transition Team and complete the work of developing a Congregational Profile. The Profile will shape subsequent conversation and interviews with potential pastoral candidates. We invite your continued prayers for this process! As we engage in this process, we can be confident that God is giving us what we need to be a church Making Jesus Known!

Thanksgiving Eve Service

One of the best ways of celebrating Thanksgiving is by joining in worship with siblings in Christ. On Thanksgiving Eve, Community of Christ will meet for worship with Hope United Methodist, Whitehouse and Zion United Methodist, Whitehouse. Save the date and watch for details in terms of specific time and place.

And Finally...

For what are you thankful? How about if we create a list, including pictures, and create a bulletin board which will provide a visual reminder of all that for which we offer and thanks and praise to God? The Holy Spirit surley will use such thankfulness to shape generous hearts.

Know that I am thankful for you!

Together with you in Christ,
Pastor Marcus Lohrmann

Christ in Our Home

July, August, September
2021

Christ in Our Home is a quarterly Christian devotional that brings you a daily message of God's amazing grace. Reflections and prayers are based on scripture readings from Revised Common Lectionary Daily Readings

Pay attention!

Look at what is before your eyes. (v. 7)

Lately I've been paying special attention not just to things like deadlines, traffic lights, and people with whom I'm talking, but to little things like the side view of an ant crawling across the cement or the way leaves and branches move in the woods near my house.

For the early Christians known as desert mothers and fathers, the discipline of paying attention known as "practicing the presence of God" was vital to their prayer and community life. Prior to practicing this aspect of prayer myself, I sometimes missed out on aspects of God that were right in front of me.

Today Paul reminds us to notice what is right before us: that we belong to Christ, and so do our neighbors. When we pay attention to and live in confidence that all belong to Christ, it affects what else we pay attention to: what we prioritize, decisions we make, and opportunities to reach out in love to serve others.

God, open our senses to see that all belong to Christ.
Help us live out of this grace-filled truth. Amen.
