A WORD FROM FATHER JIM

Since both the Seventh (“You shall not steal”) and Tenth (“You shall not cover your neighbor’s goods”) Commandments are concerned with external goods, we will examine them together. Together these two Commandments cover Catholic social teaching, which dictates that property must always be used in accordance with what best serves the common good. God designed the earth and all it contains for all peoples so that all created things would be shared fairly under the guidance of justice tempered by charity. In his use of things, man should regard the external goods he legitimately owns not merely as exclusive to himself but common to others as well.

By the right to private property, each person has the right to possess things as one’s own. With this, we must recognize that a person is not property and every person must have access to the basics of food, clothing, and shelter necessary for living life. The Seventh Commandment requires that the use of earthly goods and the fruits of people’s labor must always be joined to justice and charity, for the human person is the author, center, and goal of all economic life; this is the basic principle behind the concept of stewardship (the giving of one’s time, talent, and treasure). Christians are required to participate in public activity; in other words, we are called to be good citizens with regards to all peoples and creation itself. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that “rich nations have a grave moral responsibility toward those which are unable to ensure the means of their development by themselves” (CCC, 2439). The Seventh Commandment calls that we have a respect for the integrity of all creation, this includes nature, animals, and the environment.

Under the Seventh Commandment, we recognize theft as the taking of another’s goods against his reasonable wishes. With this in mind, some of the common sins against the Seventh Commandment are: damage to property; graffiti; removal of street signs; refusing to pay just wages; cheat others through pricing; charging excessive interest; not paying back what is owed; spending more of someone else’s money than what is necessary; not doing honest work; failing to fulfill a contract; failing to pay taxes; cheating on tax returns; and robbery.

The Tenth Commandment forbids coveting, which is the sinful desire for the goods of others. Our natural appetite leads us to desire things that are good in themselves, but an excessive desire leads to sin. This Commandment forbids greed, avarice, and envy. Greed is the desire for earthly goods without limit. Avarice is a passionate desire for riches that leads one to use money to control others. Envy is unhappiness at the sight of another’s good fortune. Avarice is the sinful desire for wealth; whereas envy is the sinful desire for the goods of another. Both are capital or deadly sins. The cure for these sins is to love poverty of spirit. This virtue leads one to accept the goods of this life as on loan from God.

The Seventh and Tenth Commandments involve many complex obligations that arise from one’s right to own property and his or her relations with neighbors and society. Everyone who cooperates in doing damage is obliged to make restitution. Restitution refers to the obligation to return things to the state in which they were before theft, damage, or robbery. Restitution must be made for all sins against justice. There is an obligation to make restitution for anything stolen as well as for any damaged done to property. When it comes to the Seventh and Tenth Commandments, we are called to respect the generous gifts which God has given to us and share them with others so everyone can experience the fullness of God’s love.

God bless,
Fr. Jim Ruhlin

CHURCH DAMAGE

Brick Damage and Gutter Issues

After removing gutters to investigate the extent of damage of masonry work: Damage to the brick wall was caused by two means;

- 1) Leaking gutters at the center joint allowed water to wash down the face of the wall causing erosion of the bed mortar joints, rusting the existing reinforcement bars and causing the bars to migrate outside the wall.
- 2) The deformed copper cap flashing with open joints allowed water to enter the wall.

The following repairs will need to be completed:

Masonry Repair: $46,000.00

Gutter Repair: Awaiting Estimate

COMING SOON: Roofing Repair: We are requesting bids for a complete re-roofing of the church within the next year. We are researching all types of roofing and considering engaging a Roofing Consultant. Window Repair: Fogging and potential leaking issues.

ATTENTION CATHOLIC WOMEN!

St. Michael the Archangel Parish has a Catholic Women's group called The Ladies' Sodality. All women of the parish are welcome to join! This is an opportunity for the women of the parish to gather for fellowship, prayer, devotion and charity. The Ladies' Sodality meets on Monday mornings in the parish center from 9:30 to 11:00AM. Annually, The Ladies' Sodality asks parishioners for donations to support their group in the form of a "Bake-less Bake Sale." All donations benefit The Ladies' Sodality group which strives to support the needs of the parish.

The food pantry of St. Vincent de Paul needs your continued support. The number of neighbors we serve is increasing significantly. Food donations are especially appreciated. The more food donated, the more monetary funds can be used for other purposes in serving the poor and needy in our community. We are in most need of the following food items:

Pasta, spaghetti sauce, pork and beans, peanut butter, canned soup, tuna, canned vegetables and cereal. Items can be dropped in the barrels at the church entrances. Thank you for your generosity.

BAKELESS

Bake Sale

The St. Michael Ladies' Sodality is sponsoring a Bakeless Bake Sale!

Do your Lenten almsgiving by donating to the bakeless bake sale. All proceeds will go towards the needs of the church. Simply cut out this ad and place it in an envelope with your donation; drop the envelope in the collection boxes or at the parish office. No donation is too small. Thank you for your support!

MEN'S MINISTRY

Men aged 21 and over are welcome every Monday from 7:00<sup>PM</sup> to 8:30<sup>PM</sup> in the Malin Center. We have a great group of diverse men. Our goal is to grow in faith while sharing fellowship in a relaxed atmosphere. We are watching a video series called "Into the Breach" and reading the Apostolic Letter that the video is based on. Questions...contact Andy Gotsch at (727) 379-1558 or email at agotsch@saintmichaelchurch.org.
