Job Overview:

The Scaabe Support Worker is responsible for providing a range of supportive services to children, youth, and families. This role involves assisting with daily living activities such as cooking, cleaning transportation, and other essential tasks that help meet the unique needs of each family. Scaabe Support workers play a vital role in promoting family well-being by reducing stress and preventing families from becoming overwhelmed. Their support contributes to creating a safe, stable, and nurturing environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide hands-on support to families to reduce daily stress (childcare help, routines, parenting support)
- Encourage, mentor, and empower parents in their caregiving role
- Perform general household duties such as cleaning, cooking, and shopping
- Assist with practical matters such as appointments, budgeting, connection to resources and services
- Maintain documentation and reports as required by Agency
- Collaborate with other departments and professionals to ensure the holistic well-being of children and families
- Other duties, as assigned.

Qualifications:

- General knowledge of Peguis First Nation federal legislation, "Honouring our Children, Families, and Nation Act"
- Be a positive role model
- Strong ability to manage conflict and provide guidance to children, youth and families as requested
- Ability to handle crisis situations in an appropriate manner
- Available to work irregular hours, including night shift, weekends, and statutory holidays
- Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong writing and reporting skills
- Ability to promote non-intrusive in-home supports to children, youth and families
- Valid class 5 Driver's license and Reliable means of transportation

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- A minimum of one year experience in the supporting services field working with children, youth and families
- First Aid/CPR certificated and/or is provided
