

The only museum along the entire 2,000 mile trail that tells the full story of the legendary 1860-61 horseback relay mail service.

PONY EXPRESS NATIONAL MUSEUM

Modern, interactive and educational exhibits depict the need, creation, operation and termination of the famous mail service that lasted from April 1860 to October 1861. Today, the museum continues to stand as a tribute to the legend and legacy of the Pony Express and its enduring era. From adult tours to children's groups and special group events, the Pony Express National Museum offers some of the nation's best hands-on displays in a unique and historical event space.
