Message: “The Kingdom, Empires, & the Potter’s Clay”
— Pastor Katelyn Weakley

God Is Over All a Short Message for Today

“The God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed . . . it shall stand forever.” Daniel 2:44

King Nebuchadnezzar’s dream in Daniel 2 reminds us that every human empire, no matter how dazzling, is temporary. The statue of gold, silver, bronze, iron, and clay looked powerful but was fragile at its core. One stone, “cut out without hands,” shattered it and grew into a mountain that filled the whole earth.

In a world obsessed with power and success, God shows that what seems strongest can crumble in a moment, while His kingdom—established by Christ—quietly stands forever. Real security isn’t in grades, jobs, or platforms, but in His unshakable character and reign.

Announcements

40 DAYS OF PRAYER: It’s not too late to join us for 40 Days of Prayer! We have a few more books and plenty of opportunity to join a small group—either in person or online! Visit the welcome desk for more information or grab a book if you don’t have one.

IN THE LAST DAYS SERIES: Today we are beginning a six week sermon series examining what the Bible has to say about last day events, Jesus’ return to earth, and more! If you know people feeling overwhelmed by current events, invite them to come explore the hope, peace, and clarity that God provides in His Word.

VALENTINE’S POTLUCK: Save the date—February 14—for our annual Valentine’s potluck after worship! Bring a favorite dish to share, and sign up to decorate a table or two. And as we love to say at Mt. Tabor: invite your family, friends, and neighbors!

Notes from today’s message
