Coming in the Name of the Lord

By Kurt Selles | TodayDevotional.com

“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!” - LUKE 19:38

The mountain view across a vast meadow on the Appalachian Trail was lightly dusted with snow under a brilliant blue sky. I could see for miles across the valley. It was the Sunday before Easter, and I paused to reflect on when Jesus and the crowds descended the Mount of Olives and headed into Jerusalem.

Spying him, crowds of people were filled with patriotic fervor. Hailing him as their king, they laid cloaks and palm branches on the path in front of him, shouting, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!” Somewhat mistaken, they believed he would be Israel’s national savior who could free them from the rule of the Roman

Announcements

AGAPE DINNER: You are invited to join us for a special Agape Dinner after our worship service on Sabbath, April 4.

HOOD VIEW ADVENTIST SCHOOL MISSION TRIP: Thank you to everyone who donated time and funds to make this year’s middle school mission trip possible. The team of 7th & 8th-grade HVAS students and adult leaders will be working on home repairs and community service projects in the Greenville, SC area from March 16-23. Please pray for their safety, unity, and spiritual growth as they serve those in need.

PAA (PORTLAND ADVENTIST ACADEMY): Mark your calendar for Alumni Weekend, May 1-2, 2026. This year’s Honor Classes include graduating years ending in “6” or “1.”

REALLOCATION OF FUNDS: Because we do not currently have an active Pathfinder or Adventurer club, there is a balance of $5,183.04 sitting in the club account. At our last Church Chat, the church family voted to move these funds into the general Children’s Ministries account, pending donor approval.

If you have given specifically to the Pathfinder/Adventurer fund in the past couple of years and are willing for your gift to be reallocated in this way, please let Jodi know. You can speak with her directly or email her at mttaborsdatreasurer@gmail.com.

DISCOVERYLAND GIVING: Please direct all gifts to Discoveryland using Mission #9872 account only. Thank you!

Empire. But Jesus had come for a far greater purpose—and just a few days later the same crowds were shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Jesus is the Savior—not merely of Israel or any other nation, but of all people who believe in him. In his mercy, God gave the crowds not what they wanted but what they—and we—needed most.

Later on that Sunday in Appalachia, I met a Christian brother named Dave. Standing on the trail, we prayed together, celebrating the Savior.

Jesus saves us from our sinful selves and gives us the peace and assurance we need in order to live and walk with God.

Lord, our wants are so many and are often so shallow and frivolous. Thank you for giving us what we need: new life and peace in you. Amen.
