Today’s Message: “The Story I’ll Tell” – Rachel Swanston

Jesus’ Coterie Today Devotional

When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, and James, and the child’s father and mother.

– LUKE 8:51

Coterie. This word comes to us from the French language and refers to an “inner circle of friends.” Luke’s story of healings in this passage introduces Jesus’ coterie—his inner circle of disciples.

News had spread about Jesus’ teaching and healings, so a crowd gathered as he and his disciples returned to Capernaum. Jairus, a local religious leader, came and pleaded with Jesus to heal his dying daughter. Then, on the way, Jesus was delayed by a woman who desperately needing healing from chronic bleeding. And by the time they reached Jairus’s home, the young girl had died. Undaunted, Jesus entered her room anyway, followed by her parents and Peter, John, and James.

Why does Jesus choose only Peter, John, and James to see him raise the little girl from death? Although Jesus’ purpose isn’t entirely clear, we see Peter, John, and James playing important roles later as they bear witness to the identity and power of Jesus, the risen Lord. Indeed, their testimony about Jesus in the New Testament helps to provide the foundations of the good-news message of God’s love and salvation in Christ.

Jesus has chosen each of us too to share about his amazing love and power so that people everywhere can have new life in him.

Lord Jesus, strengthen our faith so that we too can be your witnesses in the world. Amen.
