Round-Up

Just one midweek game this time – on Tuesday, Meon Milton battled bravely but lost 0-5 in the Portsmouth Senior Cup at Southern League Premier side Gosport Borough.

Saturday was a mixture of cup games and our league programme.

In the Senior Division, In the Senior Division, leaders Locks Heath were in cup action, so any of the three teams below them could overtake them with wins. Crofton Saints are now top after a 6-1 home win over Southsea Sports, with six different scorers; Gosport has proved a good home for them so far. Hook moved up to second after a narrow 1-0 home win over Whitehill & Bordon, Roxburgh with the all-important goal. But AFC Shirley, in fourth, missed their chance as they were held to a 0-0 draw by Denmead. Liss Athletic, in fifth, had a shock as they went down 0-3 at bottom club Andover Town. Hedge End Rangers moved into sixth after a 1-1 draw at Bishops Waltham, and two teams in lower mid-table faced each other as Moneyfields Reserves beat Broughton 4-0 at the JJ, two of those from Close, to move up to eighth.

In Division One second-placed AFC Netley drew level on points with leaders Overton United (who didn't play) after a good 6-1 win at Mob Albion, their seventh win in a row. Schmedlin scored a double for Netley. It was fifth v fourth at the NormRod as Hedge End Town lost 0-2 to Nursling & Shirley, who move into third. Fairless and Long got the N&S goals. Both Sway and Twentyten were currently above the bottom three, but had played more games than those below them. Sway were beaten 3-4 by Paulsgrove, who move off the bottom, but Twentyten gained a useful point with a 3-3 draw at Rushmoor Community. Morris got two for the home side.

We also had some more Hampshire Saturday Trophy games, some were postponed from last week, some were deliberately scheduled for this week.

There was an interesting all-HPFL matchup at Silchester where the home team, going well in Div 1, lost 1-2 at home to mid-table Meon Milton.

All the other ties involved our teams against U23/reserve teams. The most notable one was BTC Southampton's trip to Tadley Calleva Res, who won this competition last season, and BTC came away with a superb 3-1 victory.

Other ties saw Whiteley Wanderers lose on penalties to Eversley & California Res, Hayling United win 2-1 at Romsey Town U23, Clark and Metherell on target for the Bugs, and Senior Division leaders Locks Heath win 4-1 at Liss Athletic Res, two goals each for Wood and Simpson.

Another cup competition starting this weekend was the Aldershot Intermediate Cup; Liphook United started this well by winning 3-1 at Hartley Wintney Res.
