

What to Bring with You to Our Office

The following items may be needed to complete the arrangements for your loved one. Please bring the items which are readily available to your arrangement conference, and other items may be brought later.

General information

- Social Security number
- Date of birth
- City and state of birth
- Legal address
- Spouse's full name (including maiden name) and Wedding date (if applicable)
- Parents' full names (including mother's maiden name)
- Names of employers
- Names of surviving relatives (children, siblings, grandchildren, etc.)
- Highest level of education completed

Personal items

- A photograph to be placed with their online obituary

Important papers (if applicable)

- Life insurance policies
- Cemetery paperwork
- Funeral prearrangement paperwork
- Military discharge papers (DD 214 form)