HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

YOU SPOKE. WE LISTENED.

THEMES FROM OUR COMMUNITY SURVEY

Thank you to the families, faculty, and parishioners who shared your thoughts and experiences. Your feedback provides valuable insight as we continue to strengthen Holy Family School.

FAITH IS OUR FOUNDATION

Our Catholic identity, faith formation, and strong connection to Holy Family Parish are deeply valued and set our school apart.

"The faith, values, and sense of community are why we choose Holy Family."

90.1% say their child has opportunities to grow in faith at school.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE MATTERS

Families want strong academic foundations, consistent expectations, and the right supports to ensure students are prepared for what comes next.

"We appreciate the strong teachers and want to keep building on academic rigor and communication, especially in the middle grades."

44.0% selected strong reading and math foundations as a top priority.

COMMUNICATION BUILDS TRUST

Families value regular updates and appreciate the many ways information is shared. They would like communication to be more timely, consistent, and easier to find, with meaningful follow-up.

"Clear and consistent communication helps us feel informed and confident."

55.2% rated the school's responsiveness to parent feedback positively.

BELONGING MAKES HOLY FAMILY SPECIAL

Our teachers, relationships, tradition, and welcoming community are often highlighted as some of the best parts of Holy Family. Families want to continue creating opportunities for everyone to feel connected and included.

"The sense of community and family at Holy Family is something truly special."

43.8% selected their child's happiness and sense of belonging as important to their long-term commitment.

FAMILIES WANT TO SEE PROGRESS

Respondents are asking for transparency, clear priorities, and visible follow-through on the ideas and concerns they share. There is strong support for continued growth and a shared commitment to the future of Holy Family School.

"We love Holy Family and want to see it continue to grow and thrive for future generations."

58.4% selected teacher and staff quality as important to their long-term commitment.

Over 100 responses and 500+ thoughtful comments were received through this survey.

School leadership has been made aware of the results and may address matters needing immediate attention. The information shared in this summary reflects key themes and does not include every comment.

OUR MISSION

Our commitment to achieving the highest standards of excellence in Catholic values, education and student development is evident in the characteristics of a Holy Family School graduate.

A HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL GRADUATE IS A:

Christian Leader | Faith-filled disciple of Christ | Loving person | Centered, well-rounded person | Healthy person | Lifelong learner

Guided by tradition and focused on the future, HFS is committed to providing our students with a solid foundation for growth.
