

Name:	Ronald Myles
Occupation:	Retirement Consultant
Member Since:	2016

I am a Senior Retirement professional with 20 years of experience in finance and banking. I have worked for 9 years at TIAA-CREF, a Fortune one hundred insurance firm specializing in retirement products and services for nonprofits. Proud member of COH since July 2016.

In any business or organization I support, the value I add is my natural relationship-building skills, leadership skills and experience, eye for detail, and great communication and organization. I serve in multiple ways at COH and in the community through volunteering on committees, fashioning partnerships, and leading different projects.

Currently, I am serving on the Cathedral of Hope Board of Stewards as the board Clerk where I support the many strategic parts of the church. For 3 years I was the board liaison to the Development Committee. In addition, my time and talents are also spent volunteering with Coat of Colours, Counting Team, Couples, Plano Circle, Hillcrest House, Junior Achievement, Habitat for Humanity, Boys and Girls Club, partnering and strategizing with economic development groups, and Chair LGBTQ Alliance Business Resource Group.

As a certified nurse executive, I bring a wealth of experience spanning over four decades in nursing, coupled with two decades of leadership expertise.

KEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Demonstrated success in steering finance, quality, personnel, and customer service metrics through innovative leadership.
- Proficient in employing advanced analytical skills to match human resources with appropriate roles.
- Possess a unique ability to inspire and foster engagement among team members, driving cohesive and productive outcomes.

It is with great honor that I seek to serve on the Board of Stewards at the Cathedral of Hope. I firmly believe that my talents and experiences align with our mission and vision, dedicated to spreading Christ's message of faith, hope, and love. Inspired by the servant leadership exemplified by our ministry team, I am driven to extend hope and love to marginalized communities seeking God's unconditional grace.

Name:	Doug Waite
Occupation:	Assistant Sales Manager
Member Since:	2009

After moving to Texas in early 2007, I found CoH and started attending the 9 am service. I was invited to join a Life Group early on and have been an active member of Circle of Celebration since. I served on the By-Laws Committee for three years which offered a great view into the operations of the church. I have served as a Greeter for the last 4 years. I am a Greeter Captain for week three and was most recently an interim First Impressions Coordinator after John Mathis' departure. I also serve as an Usher on an "as needed" basis.

With my extensive retail/managerial background, I am an excellent listener, communicator, and leader. I consider myself outgoing and try to connect with each person I know/meet on a personal level. Empathy and compassion are two of my personal strengths as well. As a manager for a large retail furniture/design company, I understand budgets and fiscal responsibility. I would be honored to serve CoH and the Board of Stewards! Thank you!!

One of my greatest strengths is my more than 25 years of administrative experience. My experience has included budgeting (>$20M), personnel issues (600 employees), contract management, and planning. I have also served on the board of Pride Charities, a food, pantry, and clothes closet in Houston. I served on the board of Resurrection MCC for a time. I'm retired and have some time to give as a board member to my church. In addition, I also served on staff at Resurrection MCC as Director of Connections. To borrow from Joni Mitchell...I've looked at church life from both sides.

As the CoH Board and church, we must be good stewards of that with which God has blessed us to fulfill our Vision. We must move forward with new and innovative ways to accomplish our Mission while offering a healthy respect for our past. We can strive to do more without overreaching. I promise to listen to others and offer my experience and skills as they are needed to move the church forward on its Mission.
