

Sample of Candidate Bio

Please use these bullet points as a guide to help you write your 150-175 word bio.

* Present occupation

* Experience with Financial Management

* Job History/Leadership Skills

* History/Involvement with COH

Name:	Steven R. Jolly
Occupation:	Owner – SRJ Marketing Communications
Member Since:	01-28-1996
	One of my greatest strengths is my extensive experience as a current and past board member of a variety of non-profit organizations. I have served on a variety of National Membership programs and Communications committees since 1994. Professionally, I have over 27 years of experience in the communications industry. As the owner of SRJ Marketing Communications, I assist a wide variety of clients with the development and implementation of their strategic communication programs. The part of the vision for the Cathedral of Hope that is by far the most compelling for me is to bring hope of a loving and compassionate God to GLTB people everywhere – especially for those who are living in small and isolated communities. I believe that we are the Liberal voice of inclusion – that needs to be heard. As a member of the CoH Board, I will provide my gifts and talents and personal experiences in such a way that will contribute positively towards our mission and vision to be the “Cathedral” that God has called us to be.

Name:	Stacia Sims
Occupation:	Senior Vice President of Information Services - CoServ
Member Since:	02-03-1999
	I am Senior Vice President of Information Services for a not-for-profit utility with approximately $300 million in revenue. I have more than 10 years experience with strategic planning and budgeting on the executive level. I have excellent organizational and leadership abilities. As a senior executive with CoServ, I actively participate in fundraising activities for our charitable foundation. I currently serve as an officer of the Board of Directors for the Susan G. Komen for the Cure North Texas affiliate. I have been on the board since the fall of 2006 – the year we became a $4 million affiliate. I have played an active role as facilitator, organizer and leader in order to help make the North Texas Race a success. At the Cathedral of Hope I have served as a member of the Office Angels and Greeter Ministries. I participated in the Habitat for Humanity project in 2004 and the mission trip to Reynosa, Mexico in 2006. If elected, I hope to give back just a fraction of what this community of faith and leadership has given me. My spirit has soared and my values are rooted in part, due to my involvement with the Cathedral of Hope.