The Epiphany of the Lord Matthew 2:1-12

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, we have two different reactions to the birth of Jesus the newborn king of the Jews. We have King Herod, a Jew, who is more concerned about losing his crown to a child, than going out to search for this newborn king. On the other hand, we have the magi from the east, who have been travelling from afar following a star that is leading them to the newborn king. These magi are not Jewish and yet they are searching high and low for this child so that they may offer Him gifts and pay Him homage.

What is it about this child that has put in the hearts of the magi the desire to seek and find Him? They are determined to travel to foreign lands and will not cease until they find the one that their hearts so much desire. St. Augustin once said, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You." Could this be the reason why the magi are restless and will not relent until their hearts rest in Jesus?

Friends, this past December, we spent several weeks in the Advent season awaiting the arrival of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our hearts were restless during that time because without realizing it, our hearts need to rest in Him. Christmas finally came and we celebrated the birth of our Lord Jesus. However, our journey does not end there. We must continue to travel in this journey that we call life, but we no longer do it alone. We have found the newborn King not in a manger in the outskirts of Bethlehem, but instead in the manger that we have prepared for Jesus in the depths of our hearts.

Deacon Ezequiel

Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor Mateo 2:1-12

En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, tenemos dos reacciones diferentes ante el nacimiento de Jesús, el recién nacido rey de los judíos. Tenemos al rey Herodes, un judío, que está más preocupado por perder su corona a manos de un niño, que por salir a buscar a este rey recién nacido. Por otro lado, tenemos a los magos del oriente, quienes han estado viajando desde lejos siguiendo una estrella que los está conduciendo hacia el rey recién nacido. Estos magos no son judíos y, sin embargo, están buscando por todas partes a este niño para ofrecerle regalos y adorarlo.

¿Qué tiene este niño que ha puesto en el corazón de los magos el deseo de buscarlo y encontrarlo? Están decididos a viajar a tierras extranjeras y no se rinden hasta encontrar aquel que tanto desean en sus corazones. San Agustín dijo una vez: "Nos hiciste, Señor, para Ti; y nuestro corazón está inquieto hasta que descansa en Ti." ¿Podría ser esta la razón por la cual los magos están inquietos y no cederán hasta que sus corazones descansen en Jesús?

Mis queridos hermanos, el pasado mes de diciembre pasamos varias semanas en el tiempo de Adviento esperando la llegada de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Nuestros corazones estuvieron inquietos durante ese tiempo porque sin darnos cuenta, nuestro corazón necesita descansar en Él. Finalmente llegó la Navidad y celebramos el nacimiento de nuestro Señor Jesús. Sin embargo, nuestro viaje no termina ahí. Debemos seguir recorriendo nuestro caminar en esta vida, pero ya no lo hacemos solos. Hemos encontrado al Rey recién nacido no en un pesebre en las afueras de Belén, sino en el pesebre que hemos preparado para Jesús en lo más profundo de nuestro corazón.

DID YOU KNOW?
The challenge of complacency
 Safe adults often move through the world with a heightened awareness of what could be suspicious behavior and warning signs – this may feel overwhelming. If they never encounter abuse, they could easily become complacent — thinking there is no potential for abuse because they have not seen it in their own lives. The antidote to complacency is to always remember the end goal: the safety and well-being of the children and vulnerable people in our parishes, schools, ministries and communities. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “The Challenge of Complacency” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿SABÍAS QUE? ¿SABÍA QUE?
El desafío de la complacencia
 Los adultos de confianza suelen mover por el mundo con una mayor conciencia de lo que podría ser un comportamiento sospechoso o señales de alerta, lo cual puede resultar agobiante. Si nunca se encuentra con casos de abuso, podría caer fácilmente en la complacencia, pensando que no hay posibilidad de abuso porque no lo han visto en sus propias vidas. El antídoto contra la complacencia es recordar siempre el objetivo final: la seguridad y el bienestar de los niños y las personas vulnerables en nuestras parroquias, escuelas, ministerios y comunidades. Para mayores informes lea el artículo de VIRTUS® “The Challenge of Complacency” (El desafío de la complacencia) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
