Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

John 2:13-22

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, we see the zeal that Jesus has for His Father's house. He walks into the temple and instead of seeing a house of worship, he sees how it has been transformed into a marketplace. The Psalmist spoke of this in Psalm 69 when he said, "Zeal for your house will consume me." Jesus decided to cleanse the temple by driving out the money changers and all the animals that were being sold at a premium as they took advantage of the pilgrims. Pilgrims that came from far and wide to celebrate the Passover by worshipping God for delivering them from slavery as noted in the book of Exodus. Sometimes it's easy to forget why it is that we come to the temple, especially on Sundays. Ask yourself that question, why do I come to the temple? Do I go on Ash Wednesday to receive ashes and nothing more? What about major feasts, such as Christmas and Easter? Do I come just because its festive and I want to feel like I belong? What about any given Sunday? Am I here because I am forced to be here? Are you like the Jews converting the temple into something that it isn't meant to be? The temple is not a "marketplace", it is a house of prayer. A house where we should come to worship our living God. My brothers and sisters, let's come to the temple as it was intended by God. Let's come to church to worship and praise our almighty God. Let's be filled with zeal when we see that the house of God is being taken advantage of. But first, let's begin with ourselves. Ask Jesus to drive out anything internal that is keeping you away from coming to church to worship God. Any impediments that do not allow you to focus. Go ahead, give Jesus permission to drive them out, cleanse your "temple" since you are a temple of the Holy Spirit, and give to God what belongs to God – your devoted attention and love. Let's follow in Jesus' footsteps and be filled with zeal for our Father's house. This is what is pleasing to God.

- Dn. Ezequiel

Fiesta de la Dedicación de la Basílica de Letrán

Juan 2:13-22

En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, vemos el celo que Jesús tiene por la casa de su Padre. Jesús entra al templo y en lugar de ver una casa de culto, ve cómo se ha transformado en un mercado. El salmista habló de esto en el Salmo 69 cuando dijo: "El celo de tu casa me devora". Jesús decidió limpiar el templo expulsando a los cambistas y a todos los animales que se vendían a precio elevado mientras se aprovechaban de los peregrinos. Peregrinos que vinieron de todas partes para celebrar la Pascua adorando a Dios y dándole gracias por liberarlos de la esclavitud como se indica en el libro del Éxodo. A veces es fácil olvidar por qué venimos al templo, especialmente los domingos. Hazte esa pregunta, ¿por qué vengo al templo? ¿Voy el Miércoles de Ceniza a recibir cenizas y nada más? ¿Qué pasa con las fiestas importantes, como Navidad y Pascua? ¿Vengo sólo porque es festivo y quiero sentir que pertenezco? ¿Qué pasa en los domingos? ¿Estoy aquí porque me veo obligado a estar aquí? ¿A caso soy como aquellos judíos que convierten el templo en algo que no debe ser? El templo no es un "mercado", es una casa de oración. Una casa donde debemos venir a adorar a nuestro Dios vivo. Mis hermanos y hermanas, vayamos al templo como fue planeado por Dios. Vayamos a la iglesia a adorar y alabar a nuestro Dios todopoderoso. Llenémonos de celo cuando veamos que se están aprovechando de la casa de Dios. Pero primero, comencemos con nosotros mismos. Pídele a Jesús que expulse cualquier cosa interna que te impida venir a la iglesia a adorar a Dios. Cualquier impedimento que no te permita concentrarte. También, dale permiso a Jesús para que limpie tu "templo" ya que eres templo del Espíritu Santo, y dale a Dios lo que le pertenece: tu devota atención y amor. Sigamos los pasos de Jesús y llenémonos de celo por la casa de nuestro Padre. Esto es lo que agrada a Dios.

-Dn. Ezequiel
