CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church has always taught us, through the words of Sacred Scripture and the witness of saints like Francis of Assisi, that the natural world is created by God, that it is good, and that humans have a special duty to care for creation so that it benefits not only themselves but also future generations. Today we live in a time where pollution, climate change, and poor agricultural practices harm creation and place us all in danger.

In 2015, Pope Francis responded to this environmental crisis by issuing the encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home), in which he emphasizes the connection between humanity and nature and calls for "the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development" (no. 13).

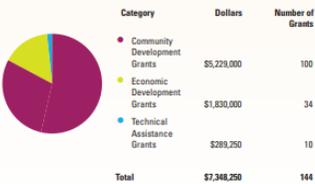

This spirit of cooperation, sustainability, and human dignity animates the work of organizations like La Cosecha Community Supported Agriculture, a cooperative farm network in Albuquerque, New Mexico, which makes locally grown, sustainable, and nutritious foods available to low-income people. With support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), La Cosecha has expanded its outreach beyond Albuquerque to 11 rural New Mexico counties, increased year-round accessibility to healthy produce and other food products, and obtained a US Department of Agriculture Good Agricultural Practices food-safety certification for its cooperative farm partners.

CCHD-funded organizations show how we can care for the environment, address the needs of the poor, and support responsible and sustainable local businesses at the same time. When you participate in the CCHD collection, you help not only other communities but also your own, because 25% of your contribution remains in your diocese to create local solutions to poverty.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Luke 23:35-45

Life can be difficult at times. We are constantly bombarded with issues dealing with health, finances, family and friends. The burden of our problems can take a heavy toll on our well-being to the point of making us feel alone in this dark and cruel world. It is tough to feel any type of hope or joy as we are tested during these trials and tribulations. But what if I were to tell you that there is hope for us and that there is a light at the end of the tunnel that will bring us joy? The devil will tell you that you are alone and that you will never reach that light. That you will never feel joy and will die suffering day in and day out. He will ridicule you and continue to lie to you. He will mock you for that little bit of faith that is carrying you along. Don't be lied to. Don't listen to the enemy. Instead, rely on the little bit of faith that you say you have and act on it just like the criminal that was crucified next to the King of the Jews, Jesus Christ.

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, we find ourselves in Calvary with three individuals crucified, Jesus and a couple of criminals. The soldiers mock Jesus by saying that if He is a king to save himself while one of the criminals continues the mockery by saying that if He is the Christ, to save not only Himself, but them too. The second criminal does not mock Jesus, instead he rebukes the mocking criminal and asks Jesus to remember him when He comes into His kingdom. Jesus responds to him by promising to be with him in paradise. The act of faith of this criminal saved him from eternal suffering.

My brothers and sisters, today we recognize and celebrate Jesus Christ as King of the Universe. A King who has no limits. He is almighty and all powerful. Don't listen to the lies of the enemy. Don't be tempted to mock Jesus by saying that if He truly is a king, to save you from your trials and tribulations. Instead, be like the criminal that recognized who Jesus is and put your faith into action. Humbly ask Jesus to remember you during your tough times and before you know it, you will feel hope and joy once again. Proclaim Jesus Christ as King of the Universe and you will see Him work in your life here on this earth and you too will be with Him in paradise.

-Dn. Ezequiel

Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

Lucas 23:35-45

La vida a veces puede ser difícil. Constantemente nos vemos abrumados por problemas de salud, finanzas, familia y amigos. El peso de nuestros problemas puede afectar gravemente nuestro bienestar hasta el punto de hacernos sentir soledad en este mundo oscuro y cruel. Es difícil sentir esperanza o alegría cuando somos puestos a prueba durante estas tribulaciones. Pero, ¿y si les dijera que hay esperanza para nosotros y que hay una luz al final del túnel que nos traerá alegría? El diablo les dirá que están solos y que nunca alcanzarán esa luz. Que nunca sentirán alegría y que morirán sufriendo día tras día. Se burlará de ustedes y seguirá mintiéndoles. Se mofará de esa poca fe que los sostiene. No se dejen engañar. No escuchen al enemigo. En lugar de eso, confía en la poca fe que dices tener y pon la en acción, tal como el malhechor crucificado junto al Rey de los Judíos, Jesucristo.

En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, nos encontramos en el Calvario con tres personas crucificadas: Jesús y dos malhechores. Los soldados se burlan de Jesús, diciéndole que si es rey, que se salve a sí mismo, mientras que uno de los criminales continúa la burla diciendo que si verdaderamente es el Mesías, que se salve no solo a sí mismo, sino también a ellos. El segundo malhechor no se burla de Jesús; en cambio, reprende al burlón y le pide que se acuerde de él cuando regrese a Su reino. Jesús le responde prometiéndole estar con él en el paraíso. El acto de fe de este malhechor lo salvó del sufrimiento eterno.

Hermanos y hermanas, hoy reconocemos y celebramos a Jesucristo como Rey del Universo. Un Rey sin límites. El es todopoderoso. No escuchen las mentiras del enemigo. No caigas en la tentación de burlarte de Jesús diciendo que si de verdad es rey, que te salve de tus pruebas y tribulaciones. En cambio, sé cómo aquel malhechor que reconoció quién era Jesús y puso su fe en acción. Pídele humildemente a Jesús que se acuerde de ti en los momentos difíciles y, sin darte cuenta, volverás a sentir esperanza y alegría. Proclama a Jesucristo como Rey del Universo y El obrará en tu vida aquí en la tierra y tú también estarás con El en el paraíso.

-Dn. Ezequiel

 Facts about psychological grooming
 A few weeks ago, we looked at physical grooming and how predators use it to lure victims. Another type of grooming is psychological, in which a predator spends a great deal of time with his or her victim, showering them with attention and making the victim feel a shared connection. When the predator becomes a peer to the child, then he has control. He can then offer special treatment — or threaten to take away that treatment, and even make threats against the child's family, pets, and other friends. For more information about psychological grooming, read the VIR-TUS® article "The Grooming Process" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿SABÍAS QUE? ¿SABÍA QUE?
 Sobre los comportamientos de engaño psicológico
 Hace unas semanas, vimos los comportamientos de engaño (conocido en inglés como, grooming) físicos y cómo los depredadores lo utilizan para atraer a sus víctimas. Otro tipo de manipulación es la psicológica, en la que el depredador pasa mucho tiempo con su víctima, prestándoles mucha atención y haciéndole sentir que existe una conexión entre ambos. Entonces puede ofrecer un trato especial, o amenazar con quitar ese trato, e incluso amenazar a la familia, las mascotas y otros amigos del niño. Para mayores informes sobre los comportamientos de engaño lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "The Grooming Process" (El proceso de engañar hacia el abuso) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
