REFLECTION

By Deacon Ezequiel Martinez

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 13, 1-23

When Jesus taught the multitudes, He taught them in parables. Why? Well, because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus reminds His disciples of Isaiah's prophecy where he tells us that "gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes". God decided not to reveal the truths of the Kingdom of God to the masses because they did not believe nor accepted Jesus' message. However, Jesus did reveal these truths to His disciples because they believed and had faith in Him.

Jesus goes on to lament saying that "many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see and hear what you hear". The disciples were privileged and worthy to have the truth revealed to them. They are the ones where the "seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit" and because of this, they are pleasing to God. They have received Jesus' message with an open heart and were ready to share it with the rest of the world.

What about you? Do you see and hear what the prophets and righteous longed to see? Did your seed fall on a path where you heard the Word of the Kingdom, yet did not understand it and had it stolen from you? Did your seed get sown on rocky ground where you received the Word with joy, but because there were no roots you lost it when trials came knocking on your doorstep? Was your seed sown among thorns in which you heard the Word, but because of anxiety and seduction by the world's riches, your seed was not able to bare fruit? Or did your seed fall in rich soil and therefore, you heard the Word and understood it resulting in your life being changed causing you to share the Word with others?

Regardless of where your seed fell yesterday, today is the day to have the seed sown where it pleases God – in rich soil. Do not be like the man or woman who refuses to hear, see, understand, or share what Jesus teaches you. Instead, be a true disciple of Jesus and receive it in your heart and share the Word with the rest of the world.

XV Domingo Ordinario

Matteo 13, 1-23

Cuando Jesús enseñaba a las multitudes, les enseñaba en parábolas. ¿Por qué? Bueno, por la falta de fe de la gente. Jesús les recuerda a sus discípulos la profecía de Isaías donde nos dice que "este pueblo ha endurecido su corazón, ha cerrado sus ojos y tapado sus oídos". Dios decidió no revelar las verdades del Reino de Dios a la muchedumbre porque no creían ni aceptaban el mensaje de Jesús. Sin embargo, Jesús reveló estas verdades a Sus discípulos porque creyeron y tuvieron fe en Él.

Jesús continúa lamentándose, diciendo que "muchos profetas y muchos justos desearon ver lo que ustedes ven y oír lo que ustedes oyen". Los discípulos fueron privilegiados y dignos de que se les revelara la verdad. Son aquellos donde los "granos cayeron en tierra buena y dieron fruto" y por eso son agradables a Dios. Han recibido el mensaje de Jesús con un corazón abierto y estaban dispuestos a compartirlo con el resto del mundo.

¿Y para ti, en donde cayeron los granos? ¿Ves y escuchas lo que anhelaban ver los profetas y los justos? ¿Acaso tu grano cayó en un camino donde escuchaste la Palabra del Reino, pero no la entendiste y se lo comió un pájaro? ¿O es que tu grano fue sembrado en terreno pedregoso donde recibiste la Palabra con gozo, pero por no tener raíces la perdiste cuando las pruebas tocaron a tu puerta? ¿Fue sembrada tu grano entre espinos en los que oíste la Palabra, pero por la ansiedad y la seducción de las riquezas del mundo, tu grano no pudo dar fruto? ¿O cayó tu grano en tierra fértil y, por lo tanto, escuchaste la Palabra y la entendiste, lo que resultó en un cambio en tu vida que te llevó a compartir la Palabra con otros?

Independientemente de dónde cayó tu grano ayer, hoy es el día para sembrar el grano donde le agrada a Dios: en tierra fértil. No seas como el hombre o la mujer que se niega a escuchar, ver, entender o compartir lo que Jesús te enseña. En cambio, conviértete en un verdadero discípulo de Jesús y recíbelo en tu corazón y comparte la Palabra con el resto del mundo.

DID YOU KNOW?

What is grooming?

Summer and water safety at home

While parents are often hypervigilant around pools and lakes, drowning can happen at home in an instant, especially with very young children. This summer, watch children around water at home, including buckets, containers, and kiddie pools. Children and babies can drown in as little as an inch of water, so constant supervision is necessary. It's also important to empty water containers as soon as play is done. For more tips about home water safety, visit Child safety experts consider grooming a core component of sexual abuse. Grooming is a manipulative process in which a person who intends harm gains access to a child, often through behaviors that seem innocent, and builds up a relationship that will ultimately allow the predator to abuse the child. Children who are groomed are slowly taught to accept and excuse any behaviors by the predator, because of the relationship that has been built up over time. A predator relies on manipulation to reduce a child's resistance and to maintain secrecy. For more information on grooming, read the VIRTUS® article "Behind the Smile: Uncovering the Warning Signs of Grooming, Part 1" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know..

¿SABÍA QUE?

¿Qué es el grooming?

Los expertos en seguridad infantil consideran que el "grooming" o engaño que violan límites personales es un componente fundamental del abuso sexual. El "grooming" es un proceso manipulador en el que una persona con intenciones maliciosas se gana la confianza de un niño mediante comportamientos que parecen inocentes y establece una relación que permitirá al depredador abusar del niño. A los niños que son víctimas del "grooming" se les va enseñando poco a poco a aceptar y justificar cualquier comportamiento del depredador, debido a la relación que se ha ido construyendo con el tiempo. El depredador recurre a la manipulación para reducir la resistencia del niño y mantener el secreto. Para mayores informes lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "Behind the Smile: Uncovering the Warning Signs of Grooming, Part 1" (Detrás de la sonrisa: cómo detectar las señales del "grooming", parte 1) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
