OPEN SEPT. 2024

A photograph of two young women with long hair, one dark and curly, the other blonde and wavy, both smiling warmly at the camera. They are holding white and blue mugs. The woman on the left is wearing a light grey sweater, and the woman on the right is wearing a tan sweater. The background is a softly blurred interior space, likely a home, with a shelf and some plants visible. The text "welcome to your home." is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image.

La Casa di Giù is a project born from Piatto & Forchetta, a totally Italian brand founded by two guys who traveled around the world receiving a lot of hospitality and altruism. Furthermore, they were able to see, touch and taste imitations of Italian food, a thousand-year-old culinary art envied and copied throughout the world.

The Project is divided into two phases.

. The first wants to offer alternative home cooking, homemade, with exclusively natural, tasty, unobtainable and unique products, grown at zero km and coming from the lands of origin.

Mediterranean delicacies where history, culture, art and traditions are contained in these wonderful regions of Southern Italy.

Tasty and delicious multiple dishes and recipes freshly cooked in our home by Italian hands.

.The second step is to give the possibility, if desired, to eat directly here in our home together with other perfect strangers.

A new idea called Mangia con Te (eat with You) ,

An extraordinary experience.
