

St. Peters is actively seeking a Youth Minister.

To assist in guiding middle and high school students in their spiritual development. The role involves planning engaging programs, events, and Bible studies that inspire and nurture their faith. The youth minister will mentor youth, support families, and recruit volunteers to cultivate a safe, welcoming, and faith-centered community. This position is responsible for helping children and adolescents deepen their understanding of themselves and their faith. Key responsibilities include organizing youth events or retreats to promote community building, developing educational programs, and collaborating with church staff to address faith education needs. This includes attending Diocesan events, traveling to Little Rock, Field Trips, and some weekend and holiday events.

Key Responsibilities

- Program Development: Plan and lead weekly youth group meetings. Participate and contribute to staff and church meetings.
- Events & Retreats: Organize special events, summer camps, and mission trips to foster community and spiritual growth.
- Lead Activities at church: Such as Easter Egg Hunt, Stations of the Cross during Lent and various activities that foster the youth in their church engagement.
- Volunteer Management: Recruit, train, and support volunteers and leaders for ministry activities.
- Communication: Maintain regular, clear communication with parents, volunteers, the DRE and the Pastor.
- Community Building: Create a welcoming environment that integrates youth into the broader church, including outreach to unchurched youth.
- Administration: Manage the youth ministry budget and resources and work under the management of the DRE.

Qualifications

- Education: A Bachelor's degree in ministry, theology, or a related field is highly beneficial, though not required.
- Experience: Previous experience working with youth, such as in camp settings, as a volunteer, or as a teacher.
- Skills: Strong interpersonal skills, passion for working with youth, organizational abilities, and a commitment to Christian faith and values.
- Background Check: Must pass background checks to work with minors.

Core Competencies

- Relational Leadership: Ability to build trust and rapport with teenagers and families.

- Teaching : Ability to deliver relevant, biblical lessons to a young audience.
- Strategic Planning: Ability to create a vision and execute long-term goals for the youth program.
- Ability to work in a team: Working under the supervision of the DRE and Pastor.
