5-Star Google review was received from Mrs. Kristina Kreeger regarding the passing of her father, Mr. Barry Hivner. Services were arranged by Scott Ball via our Red Lion chapel and Allison Duke served as the celebrant.

Olewiler & Heffner in Red Lion did an incredible job helping my family arrange my dad's services. Scott was professional, respectful, compassionate, and very helpful. He was always at the door to greet us when we stopped in. I commend his patience when we were deciding on things, he never rushed anything. Allison, what an angel she is, she listened attentively to the adventures in Dad's life and turned all that into a beautiful story that she read to family and friends in the chapel. The photo slide show was perfectly compiled. At the crematory, my family was treated with utmost respect and made us feel comfortable in an uncomfortable setting and honored our wishes. Other staff members, including the ladies at the desk that took part in everything, thank you so much! I highly recommend Olewiler & Heffner.

Kristina Kreeger

I can't imagine wanting or needing anything more from them. They anticipated everything we needed (even things we didn't realize we needed). Amy did a beautiful job as our celebrant. Your Comments about Our Staff: This was my first time working with a funeral home myself, and it was very unexpected. I've had to make a ton of calls these last few weeks with often long wait times. At Heffner's, there was never a wait, from the front staff to Scott. Everyone was communicative, handled sensitive family issues with care and professionalism, and it really felt like my dad was in the best hands. That's I suppose all you can hope for in the end.

Would you refer us to others? Yes. Highly professional and communicative. Scott and the rest of the staff could not have provided higher quality service and support when my dad passed away suddenly. From the initial call and meeting to the private viewing, cremation, and payment, Scott was professional and communicative. He even hand-delivered the certified death certificates to me. My dad and I were in the best hands in those most painful moments. When your loved one dies, especially unexpectedly, you're forced to make a lot of decisions quickly. Hoping this review can help someone make that decision a little less blindly. Trust there is dignity at Heffner.

No one wants to ever experience the loss of a loved one, however in our lives that is going to happen. Scott and his team did an excellent job making us feel comfortable and confident that they would hold our wishes and the elected service(s) to the upmost priority. The day of the service Scott made us feel like family comforting us in whatever we needed and wanted. Allison was amazing meeting with us to get insight on our loved one's life history. 5 Star Facebook review received from a family Scott and Allison served at Kenneth Road. The last three sentences couldn't be more touching:

Until a close family member to you unexpectedly dies, you don't realize how many decisions you have to make very quickly. This was unfortunately my reality a few weeks ago when I got a call that my dad passed and the hospital needed a place for him to go. I was filled with shock and grief and was immediately recommend to contact Heffner Funeral Home. That was probably the best decision I made throughout all of this.

This is a family run home. What that means is you get a lot more support than you would from other corporate funeral homes and compassion. I had to come from out of town (Tampa, FL) and I didn't have to worry about a single thing. They found out the hospital my father was at because I wasn't even sure and made sure they got him right away. We met up with them a few days later once I got into town and I was shocked at how much they took care of.

Since I'm so far away and it was my mom in PA, I was worried about all the paperwork. They handled all the title paperwork for my father's cars, his life insurance paperwork and even sent it in for us, the death certificates, laminated the newspaper obituary so we didn't have to buy 20 newspapers. I was in total shock at how much paperwork goes into a death but also how much they did for us.

Scott was our Funeral Director and he handled my mom with so much care during this delicate time and ensured she was well taken care of throughout the whole process. I cannot thank him enough!

We also opted in to have someone from the home speak on behalf of my father instead of bringing in a priest. We were SO lucky to have Allison be our speaker. We sat around a table with her for an hour speaking about memories of my dad, it was one of the only moments I felt joy that week. For once instead of just crying, my family and I were painting a picture for Allison to get to know who my father was, and she sure did deliver. I couldn't imagine a better funeral for my father. Allison highlighted his love, compassion, and more importantly she brought up many good memories that had me, my mother and my siblings laughing. It was such a perfect way to remember my dad.

I could go on and, on all day, about how much this funeral home did for me and my family but I'll end it with this.

Before I left to go back to Tampa my mother said to me "I think that funeral home helped me so much with getting some closure, I think I'll be okay". Having to leave my mom to go back to Florida was one of the hardest parts but hearing her say this made me feel so much better. Thank you again Scott and Allison for being family to us those weeks!

Google Review Received for Heffner:

Extremely professional and caring. The funeral directors were all excellent and helpful during an obviously difficult time. Scott is awesome. We decided to have a celebration of life for my grandfather a couple months after he passed and I was asking Scott for a canvas of his memorial card with a few additions. I was probably being so annoying asking him all these questions and going back and forth, but he was always so kind and understanding and helpful!

Additional Comments: We were extremely pleased with the service and attention to detail throughout my Dad's times at Heffner Funeral Chapel in Red Lion. When my Dad died, Scott Ball and Sam Piper responded to my call. They conducted the removal with tact and respect for the family.

My Dad had preplanned for cremation with no service, but I requested a simple family viewing. We gathered at the funeral home the next day, and I was amazed at how they presented Dad for his family's goodbyes. He looked at peace and we're so glad we had this opportunity. I thanked Matt for arranging this and he quickly gave credit to other staff members for their contributions to the morning.

Without hesitation, I would recommend Heffner Family Services. They treated Dad and our family with sympathy and respect, and demonstrated the highest professional standards.

Two days after I made that call, my mother passed while in hospice care. I asked them to contact Heffner, and shortly thereafter, Scott Ball contacted me and guided and supported me and my family through the entire process. He was very helpful, patient, compassionate and comforting. He helped make a very difficult situation a lot easier to handle. We also were very pleased with the extra touches.

Your comments about our staff: Scott was so generous and to be honest, we wondered if it would be a little less service this time as last time (July 2012 for Thelma). We had a few extras and this time we simply picked up remains. Scott even went out of his way to help us organize a Military Honor Guard. We were trying and getting nowhere and he had help for us in minutes. Even for an out-of-town service, he's a real asset to your staff!

Would you refer us to others? Yes. We would recommend Scott to handle it. He did a beautiful job with all of Ryan's things. My family was very impressed with your whole team. When they came for Ryan in the middle of the night, they were kind and patient with us. They allowed us to have our moments of outspoken grief without making us feel strange or self conscious. My Husband and I didn't want a traditional funeral for Ryan because he was just a little boy and Scott let us do exactly what we wanted in order to achieve the perfect service for him. Scott was also very kind with reminding us of other things he needed and when, so that we could express just how much we loved our little boy. My Grandma who is 77, said she has never seen a more professional and kind funeral home. If I were you, I would take that as a compliment because she has had plenty of experience. So please extend our appreciation to Scott. He was awesome. Thanks.

The most important reason for selecting us: I made the decision to go with Heffner. I felt comfortable with this since I was also familiar with your company and I felt you would handle my wife with respect and follow our requests since we had just updated our plans just three years ago.

Would you refer us to others? Yes. Scott Ball did a great job guiding our family as we dealt with this sudden loss. My wife and I shared our wants after we died but not to the small details to make it all happen. My one main concern was my grandchildren and great grandchildren and how they could better understand that grandmom has gone to Heaven. The kids brought hand colored pictures, flowers, and even sheet music of songs they loved to lay with grandmom. A blessing for all that were there that day. Thanks also to Betty Frey—she was and still is part of my family and some of her thoughts and suggestions help me make important decisions to do the best for my wife.
