

ALL ABOUT THE BEAT CLUB
IS PROUD AND EXCITED TO PRESENT

A FABULOUS SHOW ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18
AT 7:00PM

“Future Stars Of Broadway”

A showcase of some of Broadway's favorite songs over the decades, sung by an extraordinarily talented group of College and High School students in musical and performing arts programs around New Jersey.

Featuring Aaron Crowell and a group of his fellow performers brought to you by GW residents and Aaron's Grandparents, Janet Crowell and Bob Russo.

Dessert and coffee will be served after the performance.
Open to the entire GW Community. Club members free.

Please RSVP if you are attending to AATBGW@GMAIL.COM so we can be sure to have enough seats for this very popular show.

Non-Members $5 entry fee.

There are so many advantages to being a member of the club!
To join the All About The Beat Club, put a check for $20 per person made out to All About The Beat with your name, address, cell phone and email in Box #20 in the GW Library.

Club Contact: Debbie Harbatkin (732) 547-1096; Janet Crowell (908) 463-7957
