"Miller is one of those singers they say has something.... Indeed she does: talent"..."well worth making an effort to hear"

- Richard J. Salvucci, All About Jazz

Somewhere near the intersection of Norah Jones and Billie Holiday, you will find Philadelphia's soulful and stylish singer, Maci Miller. Whether she's interpreting the Great American Songbook or her own compositions, Maci captivates and entertains audiences around the globe with her unique vocal blend of jazz, pop, and blues.

On recordings and live on stage, Maci has worked with some of the greatest in the business, including trumpeter Steve Jankowski (Nile Rodgers, Chicago), saxophonist Larry McKenna (Woody Herman, Buddy DeFranco), Dean Schneider (former M.D. for the late Diahann Carroll), Demitrious Pappas (Smokey Robinson's Musical Dir.), and the late, great George Mesterhazy (Shirley Horn), to name just a few.

Maci has sung in legendary rooms such as the The Jazz Standard and Danny's Skylight Room in NYC, Ortliebs and Chris's Jazz Cafe in Philadelphia, Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, and Bally's, Harrah's and the Claridge in Atlantic City. Her travels have also taken her to the iconic Bamboo Bar in Bangkok, Thailand for several extended runs. Adding to her extensive musical experiences, Maci is a featured guest vocalist with numerous notable symphonic orchestras, big band and pops concerts, and cruise ships.

The GW Friends membership meeting will start at 7:15PM, followed by our guest entertainer. This special musical event is open to all paid-up GW Friends members. If you are not a paid-up member, bring a personal check with you, payable to "GW Friends." 2025 membership is $10 per person.
