

Wednesday, October 28, 2026

7:00pm

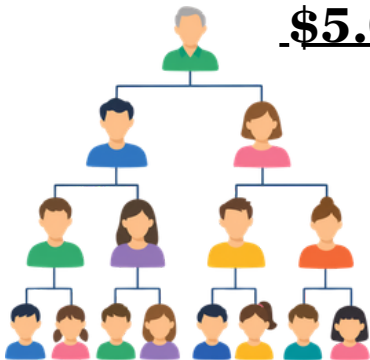

Towne Centre Poker Room

Madyln Epstein Steinhart
will speak about her new novel

“Found at Last: A Journey of Family, Memory and Belonging”

Find out how a DNA match and much investigation reunited her with long lost family and fascinating historical records. She will also share information on how you can start your own ancestry search and find out more about your family and relatives, including handouts.

$5.00 Checks made out to Hadassah

may be placed in Box #24

Attention: DNA

or they can be sent to:

Greenbriar at Whittingham

100 Whittingham Drive

Monroe Twp, NJ 08831

Name _____ Phone _____

Email _____

Please note: Our original program scheduled for this night had to be postponed due to a conflict with our speaker. He will be back at a later date.