From the Diocese

Wisdom helps us recognize that everything we have comes from God. As missionary stewards, we ask the Holy Spirit to guide us in using our time, abilities, and resources, in gratitude for God's gifts and in service to Christ and his Church. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells of ten virgins awaiting the bridegroom. Five are prepared; five are not. Jesus warns: "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." This call to readiness invites us to persevere in faith as we await Christ, nourished by prayer and the sacraments. Our generous service is one way we live out that faith. We keep our lamps burning by following Jesus: accompanying someone who is struggling, inviting a neighbor to Mass, and supporting the Church's mission with generous giving according to our circumstances. These acts can make Christ's love visible and help others encounter him. This week, ask: Who needs the light of Christ, and what gift can I share? Wise stewards remain ready for Christ by living as his disciples and by helping others follow Him.

US Catholic Bishops Applaud Heroic Service and Warn about Euthanasia

This month, November 9-13, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), Project Rachel Ministry, and other pro-life organizations are applauding the county's 2,750 pregnancy help centers. Wisconsin has 52 centers, including Hope Life Center. It services primarily Wausau, Marathon County, and surrounding communities. Bishop Daniel Thomas of Toledo, the Chairman of USCCB Pro-Life Activities, calls the work of staff and volunteers at maternity homes, resource centers, and adoption agencies "heroic services everyday to anyone in need."

Also, a November core message of the USCCB is upholding human dignity through the natural end of life. It explicitly rejects euthanasia, stating, "Rather than addressing the patient's problems, assisted suicide cruelly eliminates the life of a patient in need of authentic care."

Go to the Diocese of La Crosse for practical guidance on this issue. It also provides a specific "Catholic Addendum to the Wisconsin Power of Attorney for Health Care" to ensure a patient's medical decisions remain compliant with Church teaching against euthanasia.
