From the Diocese

The Renewal Project: Simple, Achievable, Life-Changing. The Renewal Project is not a checklist or a program—it's a personal invitation for you to engage with your faith on your time and on your terms. Rooted in prayer and community, this diocesan-wide effort encourages each of us to take a simple step deeper in our relationship with Jesus Christ. You will find a variety of invitations to help you reflect, grow, and respond to the Lord in your daily life—whether as parents, couples, singles, or students. It's about opening your heart to His presence and letting Him renew you from the inside out. To learn more and begin your journey, use your smartphone's camera to scan the QR code to the right. Come and see what the Lord desires for you.

Jubilee Year of Hope 2025, Need Hope? Take a Minute to Get to Know "the God of All Hope" (Rom 15:13) In the Book of Genesis, when Adam and Eve were tempted by the devil, they let their trust in their Creator die in their heart and, abusing their freedom to do good, they disobeyed God's command. All personal sin committed subsequently is disobedience toward God and lack of trust in His goodness. God is perfect goodness and only wants what is best for us. After this Original Sin, God did not stop loving our first parents, as shown through His promise of a Savior who would rescue us from the consequence of being separated from our Heavenly Father. The promise was kept as Jesus came to rescue us from Satan, sin and eternal death. Let us ask Jesus to strengthen the gift of hope in us, to trust in His goodness.

Liturgy & Life

Recently, I had the opportunity to watch our grandson compete in a half-marathon. He spent time training prior to the competition. One has to be in relatively good shape to compete and he had set some goals for himself regarding this race.

We can make some comparisons regarding our physical readiness and our spiritual readiness as we prepare for our end of life in bodily form. Jesus was asked who will be saved. Jesus indicated that one should be ready to enter through a narrow gate. Entering the narrow gate, the gate which enables us to reach the finish line requires that we become spiritually disciplined. We need to prepare ourselves. Although it seems it might be enough to listen to Jesus by way of the Scriptures, to attend Mass and to pray, it still takes more. Our spiritual readiness comes as our commitment is rooted in action. It is a life-long process which involves knowing how to love others through forgiveness and acceptance. This is the way God loves and it is the way we are to love others. When we are committed in this way, God will not deny us as we knock on the door of fullness with God. God will see our commitment and our discipline in being followers of his son, Jesus Christ.

There is the implication that although we believe in our salvation through the mercy and goodness of God, in some way we have to act on this belief. Last week we meditated on being followers of Christ. When Jesus concluded his response to those who asked him who will be saved, he replies that people from the east and the west, the north and the south will be at the heavenly table of God. "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." God is a God of mystery and generosity. It is not our place to judge others regarding their commitment.

If we are to take something from this Gospel of the community of Luke, we can go back to the necessity of being spiritually vigilant. We should prepare ourselves by practicing spiritual disciplines which make us strong in our love of God. Included in this discipline is time learning of Jesus Christ by studying the Scriptures, by prayer, both public and private and by good works. Following Jesus Christ as we become his disciples will lead us through the narrow gate to enjoy God's great love for all people. This is a life-long process. We should never be surprised by the vastness of God's love.
