From the Diocese

Evening of Hope | Oct 12, 2025 | Church of the Resurrection in Wausau: You are invited to make a pilgrimage to the Church of the Resurrection Catholic Church in Wausau and participate in an Evening of Hope on Sunday, Oct. 12, 2025. For the jubilee year, the Church of the Resurrection has been designated as a pilgrimage site. Father James Kurzynski will offer a jubilee reflection beginning at 2 p.m., with confessions being heard from 2-4 p.m. and benediction at 4 p.m. This event coincides with the Jubilee of Marian Devotion, which will be celebrated in Rome.

Respect Life Month: October

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

How to Build a Culture of Life

Read the full version at respectlife.org/culture-of-life.

Watching the news and reading the headlines, we may feel helpless seeing the heartbreaking lack of respect for human life. How do we respond? Changing the culture is a process of conversion that begins in our own hearts. When we encounter Christ, experience His love, and deepen our relationship with Him, we become more aware of our own immeasurable worth and that of others. His unchanging love is the source of our God-given dignity, which, therefore, cannot be taken away. When someone is facing great trials, we need to walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however He directs. We simply need to follow where He leads.

Father Janusz

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, 2025

Who do we listen to, whose commands do we follow, and what is truly most important to us? What must happen for me to believe the words spoken to me? What does it all depend on? In today's Gospel, we find the stories of two people: both unhappy and both happy, separated only by time and place. Let's take a closer look at these people. Who was the rich man really? He was one who abounded in wealth, focused on enriching himself, and did not share the wealth he acquired. He had more than he needed for daily life. He placed everything he had and who he was in wealth. He needed no one, neither man nor God, as it turned out at the end of the parable. Was he truly happy? I believe not, because wealth has the characteristic of being quickly lost, so there is anxiety and fear; my possessions are at risk. The happiness of a rich man is superficial. What can be said about a beggar? Who he was? His name was Lazarus. The rich man had no name, but he did have a house and a gate, indicating his high social status. Jesus gives us very specific information about his clothing: purple and fine linen. These were the most expensive fabrics in Jesus' time. Giving a name in the Bible meant giving dignity and identity to a person, as well as indicating a place and role assigned by God. The beggar's name, Lazarus, derives from the biblical name Eleazar, which in Hebrew means "he whom God helps." He sees this man. The beggar lives in uncertainty, without hope, because he has no one to trust. This man is of no use to anyone, and his death serves no purpose either. The rich man has wealth and a purpose, guarding his possessions. The image of the rich and the beggar is a limited one. One is not necessarily needed, or not needed at all, while the other becomes a slave to wealth. Another image we can see here is the division between earthly life and the afterlife! The second part of the parable is the time after death and the prospect of life, of eternal reward. The situation changes very quickly; now the beggar is feasting with Abraham, and the rich man is suffering the torments of fire. Does Jesus condemn wealth in this parable? No. Jesus reminds us to use the goods of this world and share them with others, but he also says that you will always have the poor, the needy, and the beggars, and you must acknowledge them, and thus offer help. Support for this group of people can come through prayer, good deeds, and real help. Finally, he adds, we must listen to the prophets, we must listen to God, if we want to find ourselves in that place we call and long for—the Kingdom of God.

AugustFest Picnic Wrap-Up

We recently held our wrap-up meeting for this year's AugustFest Picnic, and I want to begin by sincerely thanking everyone who helped make it such a success for St. Therese. From the committee chairs and dedicated volunteers, to those who donated and everyone who came out to enjoy the weekend - Thank you!

Fr. Albert often reminded us that the heart of the picnic is about coming together as a parish family, growing in fellowship, and sharing the message of Christ with one another and with our neighbors. Fr. Janusz has echoed that same vision. Of course, with all the effort that goes into this event, it is also a blessing that it raises funds for our parish. Despite challenging weather and a less-than-ideal forecast, we were still blessed with strong attendance both Saturday and Sunday, and we are happy to share that the picnic raised nearly $30,000.

Looking ahead, I want to encourage and welcome anyone who feels called to get more involved. Whether you have new ideas to share, or simply want to give some of your time and energy, we would love to have you join us. Our parish is strengthened when more people, especially young families, help carry on these traditions. Personally, I have made lasting friendships and truly meaningful connections through being part of the picnic, and I invite you to consider whether this might be something for you as well. If you are interested, please call the parish office and let them know and I would be glad to connect with you.

Finally, please mark your calendars for next year's picnic: August 8 & 9, 2026. We look forward to seeing you there!

God bless,

Nick Leair

Liturgy & Life

Because of what we see on our television screen, it seems we can become immune to the poverty around us. We also get many requests for money through the mail. How do we respond to all that surrounds us? We might even pass judgment on those who are suffering, thinking that through better decisions on their part, they could find a solution to their problems themselves.

The parable we read from the community of Luke challenges us regarding our attitude. The best way to read this parable is with close attention. Jesus tells the Pharisees that the rich man is dressed in fine garments and eats all he wants each day. Meanwhile, a man named Lazarus lies at his door, covered with sores and a willingness to eat even the scraps from the rich man's table. When Lazarus dies, Jesus reveals a God who takes this poor man to Abraham enjoying a heavenly experience. The rich man also dies but experiences torment directly opposite of what Lazarus is experiencing. The rich man asks Abraham to give him water as he suffers in the flames. Abraham tells the rich man that he received many good things in his life while Lazarus had so very little. The rich man then asks Abraham to warn his brothers so that they would not experience this suffering. Abraham indicates that the brothers of the rich man should pay attention to the prophets and Moses. Then the rich man indicates that they will listen to them but Abraham indicates that even if someone would rise from the dead, they would not listen.

God is a God of mercy and love. God allows the poor man to experience this love and mercy. God also loves the rich man but because of the rich man's choices, the rich man will experience suffering.

Is it possible that we too might experience suffering when we ignore those who need our attention? Are we truly satisfied and at peace when we ignore the poor? We might find ourselves anxious. We are called by God to see the face of God in the poor and to understand that God loves them as much as God loves us. We need to learn to ignore our desires for riches and instead pay attention to the common good. We are all God's children loved beyond all telling.
