Date

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.

Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application forms.

Purpose	This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.
Penalties for Committing Fraud	The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▫ Evicted from your apartment or house:▫ Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received:▫ Fined up to $ 10,000:▫ Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or▫ Prohibited from receiving future assistance. Your State and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.
Asking Questions	When you meet with the person who is to fill out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.
Completing The Application	When you answer application questions, you must include the following information:
Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▫ All sources of money you or any member of your household receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.):▫ Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.);▫ Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit; dividends from stock, etc.);▫ Earnings from second job or part time job;▫ Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive)
Assets	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▫ All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc.. that are owned by you and any adult member of your family's household who will be living with you.

- Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as your home to your children.
- The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.

Signing the Application

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertifications

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify. You must report on recertification forms:

- All income changes, such as increases of pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members.
- Any move in or out of a household member; and,
- All assets that you or your household members own and any assets that was sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value.

Beware of Fraud

You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:

- Do not pay any money to file an application;
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get a receipt for any money you pay; and,
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).

Reporting Abuse

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your complex or your PHA. If that is not possible, then call the local HUD office or the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at (800) 347-3735. You can also write to: HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC. 20410.

HOUSING NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY & PROCEDURE STATEMENT

It is our policy not to unlawfully discriminate in any real property transaction, including any decisions related to the use of any residential unit, facility, and/or service due to an individual's race, sex, including gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, color, religion, marital status, familial status, ancestry, age, disability, or human immunodeficiency virus infection (HIV), as stated in Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 515 and Title VIII of the Civil Rights Acts of 1968, as amended by the Fair Housing Amendments of 1988.

Pursuant to H.R.S. Chapter 515, it is a discriminatory practice for an owner or any other person engaging in a real property transaction, because race, sex, including gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, color, religion, marital status, familial status, ancestry, age, disability, or human immunodeficiency virus infection (HIV):

- (1) To refuse to engage in a real property transaction with a person;
- (2) To discriminate against a person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of a real property transaction or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith;
- (3) To refuse to receive or to fail to transmit a bona fide offer to engage in a real estate transaction from a person;
- (4) To refuse to negotiate for a real property transaction with a person;
- (5) To represent to a person that real property is not available for inspection, sale, rental, or lease when in fact it is so available;
- (6) To refuse to permit a person to inspect real property;
- (7) To steer a person seeking to engage in a real property transaction¹;
- (8) To subject a person to unwelcome or offensive harassment because of that person's protected basis. Harassment based on race, disability or sex (or other protected basis) that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living environment, or otherwise adversely affects an individual's home environment, constitutes unlawful harassment in a violation of state and federal civil rights laws.

Harassment may include many forms of offensive behavior. The following is a partial list:

- a. Verbal harassment, such as racial or sexual (or any protected basis) epithets, derogatory comments, jokes or slurs;
 - b. Physical harassment, such as touching, assault, impeding or blocking movement;
 - c. Requests for sexual favors which are conditioned upon offered benefits or threats of lost benefits, whether express or implied; or
 - d. Visual forms of harassment, such as displaying racial or sexual (or any protected basis) derogatory posters, cartoon or drawings that are offensive;
- (9) To print, circulate, post, or mail, or cause to be so published a statement, advertisement, or sign, or to use a form of application for real property transaction, or to make a record or inquiry in connection with a prospective real property transaction, which indicates, directly or indirectly, an intent to make a limitation (preference), specification, or discrimination with respect thereto;

¹The term "steering" includes the practice of directing persons who seek to enter into a real estate transaction toward or away from real property in order to deprive them of the benefits of living in a discrimination-free environment.

- (10) To refuse to engage in a real property transaction with a person or to deny equal opportunity to use and enjoy a housing accommodation due to a disability because the person uses the services of a guide or signal dog, or other service animal;
- (11) To solicit or require as a condition of engaging in a real property transaction that the buyer, renter, or lessee be tested for human immunodeficiency virus infection (HIV), causative agent of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome(AIDS);
- (12) To refuse to permit, at the expense of a person with a disability, reasonable modifications to existing premises occupied or to be occupied by the person if modifications may be necessary to afford the person full enjoyment of the premises;
- (13) To refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when the accommodations may be necessary to afford a person with a disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a housing accommodation;

If you are a person who has a physical or mental condition which substantially limits one or more of your major life activities, such as walking, seeing, hearing, breathing or caring for oneself, and you need a modification to your unit or an accommodation in order to use and enjoy your housing unit, please contact Paul M Gregory, owner's agent, at (808) 969-3327 for assistance.

- (14) To institute or apply facially neutral policies or restrictions which result in a disparate adverse impact; or
- (15) To fail to design and construct housing accommodations in a manner that it has at least one accessible entrance, unless it is impracticable to do so because of the terrain or unusual characteristics of the site²

State law also recognizes other discriminatory practices involving retaliation, threatening, intimidating, interfering, or otherwise obstructing or preventing persons in the enjoyment or exercise of full and equal rights to enjoy a housing accommodation as guaranteed by Chapter 515; or to aiding, inciting, or coercing another person to engage in a discriminatory practice prohibited by Chapter 515. See HRS 515-16.

If you think you are being harassed or discriminated against in any real property transaction because of your race, sex, including gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, color, religion, marital status, familial status, ancestry, age, disability, or human immunodeficiency virus infection (HIV), or have any questions or concerns regarding any suspected or known discriminatory practice, please contact: Paul M Gregory, owner's agent, at (808) 969-3327.
