

The Exhortation Before Marriage

My dear friends: You are about to enter upon a union which is most sacred and most serious. It is most sacred because God established it to give man a share in the greatest work of creation, the work of the continuation of the human race. And in this way, he sanctified human love and enabled man and woman to help each other live as children of God, by sharing a common life under his fatherly care.

Because God himself is thus its author, marriage is of its very nature a holy institution, requiring of those who enter into it a complete and unreserved giving of self. But Jesus Christ added to the holiness of marriage a deeper meaning & a higher beauty. He used the love of marriage to describe his own love for his Church i.e., for the people of God whom he redeemed by his own blood. Thereby giving Christians a new vision of what married life ought to be, a life of self-sacrificing love like his own. Thus, St. Paul says marriage is now & forever to be considered a great mystery, intimately bound up with the supernatural union of Christ and the Church, which union is also to be its pattern.

This union, then, is most serious, as it will bind you together for life in a relationship so close & intimate, that it will profoundly influence your whole future, That future, with its hopes & disappointments, its successes & failures, its pleasures & pains, its joys & sorrows, now hidden from your eyes. You know that these elements are mingled in every life and are to be expected in your own. And so not knowing what is before you, you take each other for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death.

Truly, then, these words are most serious. It is a beautiful tribute to your undoubted faith in each other, that recognizing their full import, you are, nevertheless, so willing and ready to pronounce them. And because these words involve such solemn obligations, it is most fitting that you rest the security of your wedded life upon the great principle of self-sacrifice. And so, you begin your married life by the voluntary and complete surrender of your individual lives in the interest of that deeper & wider life which you are to have in common. Henceforth you will belong entirely to each other; you will be one in mind, one in heart, and one in affections. And whatever sacrifices you may hereafter be required to make to preserve this mutual life, always make them generously. Sacrifice is usually difficult & irksome. Only love can make it easy; perfect love can make it a joy. We are willing to give in proportion as we love. When love is perfect, the sacrifice is complete. God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son; the Son so loved us that he gave himself for our salvation: "Greater love than this no man has, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

No greater blessing can come to your married life than pure conjugal love, loyal and true to the end. May, then, this love with which you join your hands & hearts today never fail but grow deeper & stronger as the years go on. And if true love and the unselfish spirit of perfect sacrifice guide your every action, you can expect the greatest measure of earthly happiness that may be allotted to man in this vale of tears. The rest is in the hands of God. Nor will God be wanting to your needs, he will pledge you the life-long support of his graces [in the Holy Sacrament which you are going to receive].

Oral announcements made (or should have been made) last Sunday:

Today, begins a thirty-day novena in preparation for the renewal of the Fraternity's consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary; it ends on February 11. On that day, the act of consecration will be publicly renewed. The preparatory thirty-day novena consists of the daily recitation of a decade of the Rosary and the Memorare. If timely, the priest may do this after his Mass. The faithful are welcome to join in this Novena. If so, you may simply join this intention in your normal Rosary and add the Memorare

On January 5, 2026, Leslie Riney announced her resignation as Office Manager. Her last day will be February 5, 2026. By way of seeking counsel for her replacement, Fr Hathaway submitted candidate names to the Parish Finance Council (which doubles as a Parish Council). A member of this group suggested he make a general inquiry. If you would like to consider this position yourself, please send him a resume at his office email. You may also let him know if you think such and such a parishioner would, as they say, "be a good fit." Thank you.

Dear faithful,

Last Sunday it was announced that Lesie is resigning & her replacement is being sought. Fr Hathaway will need to decide a replacement this week. If he does not already know a candidate, he will ask Fr Favole to interview the candidate. In the end, whoever is offered the position will need to be vetted by the diocese and begin the hiring process. If all goes well, the person will begin on February 5. Meanwhile, Leslie has already offered to extend herself beyond Feb. 5, if needed, to help the person transition into her position. Thank you, Leslie! Finally, let us pray all goes well in the selection process. God bless you all, frh
