Live the Liturgy — Inspiration for the Week

Jesus was not afraid to confront iniquity wherever he encountered it, and his zeal for righteousness was so strong it looked like anger as he drove the moneychangers from the temple. Pray that, with that same devotion and care, he will cleanse our hearts from sin. ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION - March 3, 2024 3rd Sunday of Lent

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life.

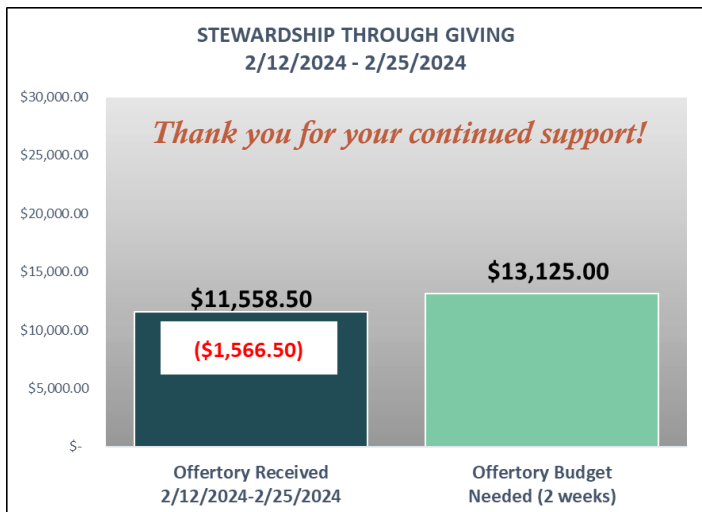

Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshipping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

— Father John Muir

Youth, Young Adult, & Family Ministry

Giving is Safe, Simple & Secure!

New to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal is a renewed focus on youth, young adult and family ministry. This is currently being led by one of our newest team members, Jessica Brown - who is working from Billings, MT. Her ministry will focus on youth outside of Sacramental Preparation (which is still being led by Thomas Dotterweich), young adults, and families. After a great deal of feedback and conversations around the Diocese, we knew that we wanted to have more focus on ministry to different ages and groups. One of the first tasks was to help with planning and leading the Diocesan Youth Event, which is taking place in Lewistown on March 16-17 (grab tickets for your high school students if you haven't already!). Additionally, there is development focusing on campus ministry, youth group leadership, young adult groups, outreach and events, and getting creative with intergenerational catechesis, etc. While she is just getting her feet wet, please reach out directly to Jessica with ideas, support, and prayers as she helps to bridge the gaps and connect parishes throughout Eastern Montana.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience:

If you are thirsting for more in your marriage, the Marriage Encounter Experience might be just what you need. To be honest, we all sometimes thirst for more, when things are dull, routine, or simply focused on schedules. It seems we experience that same thirst most profoundly when our lives are at the busiest. The Marriage Encounter Experience is a private opportunity to look at that busyness in our lives which does not quench our thirst and depletes us of intimacy and romance. We teach a 20 min technique of communication which you can use every day to focus on your love and your relationship with each other. Trust us, that twenty minutes every day goes a long way to quench that thirst. To learn more, watch: <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?=635747607124827> OR visit the website: wwme.org OR apply today by calling 307-215-9444 The next Marriage Encounter Experience will be at the Historic Elk Mountain Hotel April 12-14, 2024.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

End of Mass

Question: Is it ever Ok to leave Mass before it ends?

Answer: This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to "Go forth" during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others. If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.
