Live the Liturgy — Inspiration for the Week

Even as the disciples saw the empty tomb and the discarded burial cloths, they did not understand what had happened. But they kept faith, trusting that the Lord was at work. Let us keep that same faith when we do not find God where we expect Him to be. ©LPi

Sacraments — Please call the Priest at 406-433-1068.

Easter Prayer of Thanksgiving

Good and gracious heavenly Father,
we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.
Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love.
Bless also those who have yet
to profess belief in you.
You are God for all.
We ask all this in Christ's name.
Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - March 31st, Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, “Oh my God!” Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our “cemeteries” where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

St. Thomas Summer Camp

For 6 weeks every summer, Catholic youth from the Diocese of Great Falls-Billings and multiple other states come to the Lewis & Clark National Forest, just outside of Monarch, MT to celebrate and learn about what being Catholic means.

In 2023, over 200 youth from 6 states attended the week long camp. The goal for St. Thomas Catholic Summer Camp is to help children and teens feel the love of Christ, experience an adventure in the outdoors, and be challenged to become the saint God wants them to be. It provides an opportunity for our youth in to come together to participate in sacramental encounters, deep discipleship, camp adventures, and field trips. Several of our prior campers have also taken the opportunity to return to camp as Counselors, to help the next group of youth have the same meaningful, spiritual experience.

Your donations to the ACA help to support scholarships to youth who might not otherwise be able to attend camp.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

April 7th - JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU!

Question: Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer: If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers —the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating. In Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young women, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as "Divine Mercy Sunday," a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."
