Prayer for the Dead, Explained! It may seem strange to pray for someone who is already dead and who, according to our earthly reckoning of time, has already undergone judgment. But God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity that exists between all members of the Body of Christ. Prayer for the dead is a practice which not only predates Catholicism but predates Jesus Christ, as we see in the Second Book of Maccabees (2 Maccabees 12:42-45). "By virtue of the 'communion of saints,' the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1055).

The most common Catholic prayer for the dead is as follows: "Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace."

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that we do not know the hour of the Lord's coming. We are called to live attentively and faithfully—always ready and always prayerful. May we follow Him and build up His Church as He asks. One way to do this is by supporting an endowment at the Catholic Foundation of Eastern Montana. When we give to a permanent endowment for the benefit of our Catholic churches, priests, schools, or ministries, we help ensure that Christ's work continues for generations to come. Let us "pray always without becoming weary," and act in faith by strengthening the future of our Church. To learn more, visit www.catholicfoundationmt.org or call (406) 315-1765.

AT THE END, JESUS WILL BE THERE

Malachi 3:19–20a • 2 Thessalonians 3:7–12 • Luke 21:5–19

Family Car Talk

Instructions: Today's Gospel is pretty intense. Jesus talks about the end of the world. It can be scary to think about such things. But Jesus promises that he will protect us. Talk through the following questions with your family on the way home from Mass today.

A Jesus says, "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed." Have you ever felt as if someone didn't like you because of your Faith?

I Do you trust that Jesus will protect you and be with you at all times?

B How can we, as followers of Jesus, treat those who are unkind to us?

PERSEVERANCE

Today's Gospel ends with the line, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." Perseverance in the Faith means keeping our eyes fixed on God's will and bringing the Good News to others even when it is hard.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary, whose feast we celebrate this week, is a great example of perseverance. She was a faithful wife and mother who devoted her life to the poor. After her husband died, she joined a special religious order and used her money to establish a hospital, ministering to the sick and poor until she died.

Reflect on this image of St. Elizabeth of Hungary and think about how you can show perseverance in your life.
