VIRTUES EXPLAINED! Contentment

Connect With Tradition and Grow Your Faith

The virtue of contentment could be described as a "little sister" to the cardinal virtue of temperance. The temperate person controls his desires instead of being controlled by them; the content person, likewise, rejoices in what he has been given instead of regretting what he lacks. The ungrateful workers in the Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16) are perfect examples of discontent. They are driven by a desire for more money than they have been given, more money than they have need of. It is never a sin to seek what we need, but these pursuits can never define us, and we must always prayerfully rely on the providence of God, who cares even for the "birds of the air" (Matthew 6:25-26). "There is great gain in godliness with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world," writes Paul (1 Timothy 6:6-10). ©LPI

+ LIVE THE LITURGY + Inspiration For The Week

The Pharisees try to trick Jesus into starting a political revolution. They don't realize he came to start a revolution of the heart, not the state. God's image is stamped on our soul, but still the world tries to claim us. Revolt! You belong to God. ©LPI
