Doonbeg Apostolic Work wish to sincerely thank all who promoted and supported their final display last weekend.
All items displayed and funds donated will be distributed to missionary activities before Killaloe Apostolic Work ceases its activity later this year. After 65 years of being a central part of church and community life in Doonbeg, all members, supporters and friends over the years will always be remembered gratefully for their contribution to church, education and medical work in developing countries.

Information Night: a representative from the National Ambulance Service will be in Doonbeg Hall on Wednesday 8th April at 8pm to give a talk on setting up a Community First Responder Scheme for our community. Members from other local CFR groups will also be present. The purpose of having local First Responders is to help save lives during the critical minutes before the emergency services arrive to an incident such as a cardiac arrest or a stroke. Please come along to hear what is involved. You could be the reason someone survives. Email doonbegcfr@gmail.com or contact DCD office if you need more details.
