NEWSLETTER | NOVEMBER 2026

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

November has a way of reminding us what matters: a shared meal, a familiar story, someone taking the time to ask how we're doing. As Thanksgiving approaches, I'm grateful for the residents, families, and team members who get to know one another and look out for one another here.

This month, during National Alzheimer's Disease Awareness Month, we're thinking especially of those living with Alzheimer's or another form of dementia, and the families who love them. We call our memory care neighborhood The Harbor because it offers residents a safe, caring place to navigate the challenges that sometimes accompany dementia. Familiar routines, purposeful activities, and time spent with people who know them give residents opportunities to connect and enjoy their days. Our team brings patience and dedication to this work, along with annual certification in Alzheimer's and dementia care.

We also know that families need support of their own. That's why we offer complimentary Alzheimer's Support Services with Dr. Ron Harvard, in addition to the care we provide in our community. Dr. Harvard is a pastor, counselor, and professor with decades of experience. He also cared for his late wife, Linda, through her journey with Alzheimer's disease. He understands the questions and emotions families face, both through his work and through his own life. If it would help to talk with someone who understands, you can schedule a complimentary phone or video appointment with Dr. Harvard through our website.

That same commitment to helping families find their way through difficult questions extends to another group we're honoring this month: veterans and their families. On Veterans Day, we thank those who have served and the people who have stood beside them. For veterans, spouses, and surviving spouses exploring VA Pension with Aid and Attendance, we can also help make the application process easier to navigate. Through our partnership with Elder Resource Benefits Consulting (ERBC), families can get knowledgeable guidance at each step and avoid common delays. The initial eligibility call is always free, and we cover the cost of ERBC's service for those moving into or living in our community. If you'd like to learn more for yourself or someone you love, please reach out. We'd be glad to get you connected.

Whether we're helping a resident find comfort in a familiar routine, honoring a veteran's service, or answering a family's questions, our goal is the same: to be useful to residents and families in the ways that matter to them.

Thanksgiving gives us another chance to spend time together. If you're visiting a loved one this month, we hope you'll share a meal, join us for an activity, or simply sit and catch up. Thank you for trusting us to be part of your lives. We're grateful you're here, and we'd love to see you whenever you can stop by.

With gratitude,
Catie Mason

SPOOKTACULAR HALLOWEEN PARTY

You may not have everything you once had, but you still have reasons to give thanks. And as long as God gives you another day, there is still a reason to praise Him!

PRAYER

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for bringing us into this November season. Thank You for Your faithfulness through every year of our lives. Thank You for the people we have loved, the memories we cherish, the lessons we have learned, and the blessings You continue to give us.

Lord, You know that some days are easier than others. You know the memories that make us smile and the memories that bring tears to our eyes. You know when we feel strong and when we feel lonely.

Please remind each person here today that they are loved, valued, and never forgotten by You. Comfort those who are missing loved ones. Give peace to those who are worried. Strengthen those who are weary. And help us recognize the blessings that surround us, even in the little things.

May our hearts be filled with gratitude, our words be filled with kindness, and our lives continue to reflect Your goodness.

Thank You most of all for Jesus, for His love, and for the promise of eternal life.

In Jesus' name, amen!

A MOMENT OF APPRECIATION FOR CHAPLAIN DANNY RHODES

THERE IS ALWAYS SOMETHING TO BE THANKFUL FOR

Danny Rhodes
Chaplain

SCRIPTURE
"O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever" (Ps. 107:1 KJV).

I want to share an important truth with you today: Thanksgiving is not about having a perfect life. It is about recognizing the goodness of God in the life we have today.

Even when life changes, God does not change. Even when our circumstances are different, His love remains the same. And even when we cannot do everything we once did, we still have reasons to thank Him.

1. Thankful for God's Faithfulness
Lamentations 3:22–23 tells us: "It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness" (Lam. 3:22–23).

Think about the seasons of life you have experienced—the happy days and difficult days, the celebrations and disappointments. You may have wondered how you would make it through some of them. But here you are today!

Your life may look different than it did twenty or thirty years ago, and you may have concerns about tomorrow. But the same God who carried you through yesterday is still with you today. His faithfulness is not measured by how easy life has been, but by His presence through every season.

This November, instead of counting only the things that have changed, remember the times God helped you, comforted you, and gave you courage to keep going. The God who brought you this far has not forgotten you now.

2. Thankful for Today's Blessings
As we grow older, we may become more aware of the things we can no longer do. We may need help with everyday activities or wish we could see our families more often. But our limitations do not cancel out our blessings.

We can be thankful for a friendly smile, a kind word, a warm meal, a phone call, or a friend who takes the time to sit beside us. We can also be thankful for the memories we carry, the wisdom we have gained, and the opportunity to encourage someone else.

Psalm 92:14 says of the righteous: "They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing" (Ps. 92:14).

Your life still has purpose! You can pray for someone, encourage a neighbor, or show kindness. You are never too old to be a blessing, and you are never too old to receive a blessing from God..

3. Thankful Even in Grief
Thanksgiving can stir up memories of loved ones who are no longer with us. Perhaps you miss a spouse who sat beside you at Thanksgiving dinner, a parent, a child, or a dear friend. It is okay to miss them.

Being thankful does not mean pretending we never hurt. Faith does not mean we never cry. The Bible tells us: "The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart" (Ps. 34:18).

God does not turn away when our hearts hurt. He draws near. We can thank Him for the time we had with those we miss, cherish the memories we shared, and trust Him to comfort us when loneliness feels heavy. When we cannot find the words to pray, we can simply whisper, "Lord, I need You today." He understands.

4. Thankful for Hope in Jesus
First Thessalonians 5:18 says: "In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thess. 5:18).

Scripture says to give thanks in everything—not that everything that happens is good or that we must be happy about every circumstance. Even in difficult times, we can find reasons to trust and thank God.

One of our greatest reasons for gratitude is Jesus Christ. Because of Him, we have forgiveness for our sins, the promise of His presence today, and the hope of eternal life. Our bodies may grow older, but God's promises do not grow weaker.

Jesus said, "In my Father's house are many mansions" (John 14:2). We can thank God for yesterday's blessings, trust Him with today's needs, and rest in His promises for tomorrow. Our greatest reason for thanksgiving is not what we have in our hands, but the Savior who holds us in His hands.

A THANKSGIVING CHALLENGE

This November, I want to encourage you to try something simple.

Every morning, before you think about what is difficult or what you wish were different, name three things for which you can thank God.

They do not have to be big things.

"Lord, thank You for waking me up today."

"Thank You for someone who cares about me."

"Thank You for the memories of people I have loved."

"Thank You for giving me strength for today."

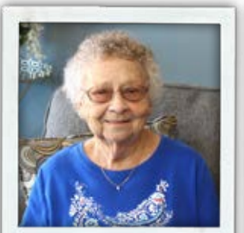

"Thank You for saving me and giving me hope."

And here is one more challenge: find one person each day whom you can encourage with a smile, a kind word, or a prayer.

You may discover that when you look for reasons to be thankful, you also begin to notice more opportunities to share God's love.

HONORING OUR HEROES

VETERANS DAY CEREMONY

Wednesday, November 11th at 1:30 PM

Richard Didrick: Trout, Tomatoes and True Love

Richard Lee Didrick has always enjoyed sitting around and talking with people. Since he and his wife, Melba, moved to Renaissance in January 2025, those conversations have helped them make a lot of friends. Richard enjoys a game of Bingo, too, but it's easy to imagine that some of the best moments come when he gets to share a story. He has plenty to tell.

Richard was born in Rome, Georgia on September 11, 1937. He grew up in a large family with his brother Joe, his sister Louise and four older half-brothers, Edward, Wyatt, Gene and Harry Allen. The family first lived off Kingston Highway before moving to Rome.

Richard attended Alto Park and graduated from Coosa High School in 1957. He was a talented athlete, pitching and playing first base for the baseball team and playing running back for the football team. But one of the most important things that happened during his school years had nothing to do with sports.

In ninth grade, he met Melba Hendon. Richard says that on the very first day he saw her, he decided he was going to marry her.

He was right. Richard and Melba married at Fellowship Baptist Church on February 28, 1958. Their wedding left the family with a story they still enjoy telling: The pastor wrote the wrong date on their marriage certificate, so the couple had to go to the courthouse for a new one. Years later, their children found both certificates and had plenty of questions about which date was the real one.

Richard and Melba raised two children, Barry and Susan. Their family has since grown to include four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Richard enjoys keeping up with his grandchildren and all the activities that fill their days.

Over the years, Richard worked for the Atlanta Post Office, Dixie Aluminum and Inland Container. He later spent 26 years as a mechanic with Georgia Power before retiring. Away from work, he enjoyed bird hunting and trout fishing in the Talulah River in Rabun County. He and Melba also loved traveling with family and friends, and two bird dogs were among his favorite pets.

Richard was a vegetable gardener, too. He grew some of the biggest, juiciest tomatoes around, along with heirloom green beans known as "Rattlesnake" or "Preacher beans." Their pods had purple stripes that disappeared when the beans were cooked. When he wasn't in the garden or spending time outdoors, Richard liked watching the Braves and the Georgia Bulldogs.

Faith has been an important part of Richard's life for decades. He has been a member of Lakeview Baptist Church since 1965 and served on its Deacon's Board until 2024.

Today, Richard and Melba are enjoying the friendships they've made at Renaissance. Whether he's playing Bingo, catching up with someone over a conversation or following what his grandchildren are doing, Richard brings a lifetime of stories with him—some as sweet as a garden tomato and one that begins with a ninth-grade boy who knew exactly whom he wanted to marry.

GOING THE EXTRA MILE

GREG LAWRENCE ❧ NOVEMBER

"If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles." Matt 5:41

Greg is being recognized for Going the Extra Mile after a nomination from resident Betty Cooper. As our Transport Driver, Greg helps residents get where they need to go. Betty shared a moment when his willingness to help made all the difference: "The last time that I had to go to the doctor, it was an emergency and I had to be there by a certain time. Greg was already on his way home from work but turned around and came back to take me and I made it in time."

Betty appreciates the time Greg takes to talk with residents, too. After learning that she had transported tuberculosis patients to Battey State Hospital in the 1960s, he took her by the former hospital so she could see it again. "He is always pleasant and helpful, and I am so glad he is my friend!" she wrote.

Greg has been our Transport Driver for almost three years. When asked whether working in an aging community has changed his life, he said, "Yes, by learning about and understanding our seniors. They need us to protect them, care for them and believe in them." He especially enjoys seeing residents smile and joke, and listening to them share stories about their lives and accomplishments.

Greg grew up in Rome, Georgia, and attended East Rome High School. A veteran, he served in the Navy from 1982 to 1987. He and his wife have two children and seven grandchildren. Outside of work, he enjoys sports and outdoor activities. He counts his school years, his time in the Navy, and the lessons he learned while becoming an adult among his favorite memories. His mom and big brother are his role models, and he fondly remembers childhood trips to Washington, D.C., and St. Augustine.

Thank you, Greg, for turning around when Betty needed you and for taking the time to know the people you drive. Your care means so much to our residents.
