18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them

Adoration Chapel

It's the first week in August and you may be thinking, "Where did the summer go?"

Children are returning to school in just a matter of days. College students are returning to classes. School supply lists still need to be purchased. Back to School lists are being created either digitally, hand-written or mentally. And are you thinking it's all just too fast? Or I didn't really make time for Jesus this summer...

Would you like a moment of peaceful reflective time? Do you wish to pray for your children to experience a successful year? The Chapel is available for as much or as little time you need and all you have to do is just open the door!

Decide to go just one time and embrace the unexpected. Simply gaze at Our Lord in silence and let HIS presence surround you.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In his song, “Lose Yourself,” the artist Eminem raps, “the mood all changed.”

We all know that moment when the mood changes, when life turns from lighthearted to deadly serious. That happens in today's Gospel. Jesus has just heard that John the Baptist, his cousin, forerunner, and friend, has been murdered. As Matthew tells us, “When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.” Until now, he had been teaching in parables and healing quietly. But John's death signals a new phase. The shadow of the Cross begins to fall. Evil shows its teeth.

And how does Jesus respond? Not with rage or despair. He goes to a lonely place to go into deep communion with his Father. From that silence comes action. He feeds the multitude. Out of grief comes generosity. Out of sorrow, life.

This is the rhythm of every disciple's life. When tragedy or violence breaks our hearts, we face a choice. We can react, or we can retreat into prayer — like and with Christ. This is the hidden place where pain becomes compassion and compassion becomes self-gift.

Lord Jesus, when life intensifies, draw me into Your quiet strength. In that hidden place with You and the Father, turn my heartbreak into the bread of love for the world. Amen.

— Father John Muir

Prayer

Lord, thank you for giving me enough to share.

Mission for the Week

I will give five loaves of bread and two fish (or some other food) to the homeless shelter.

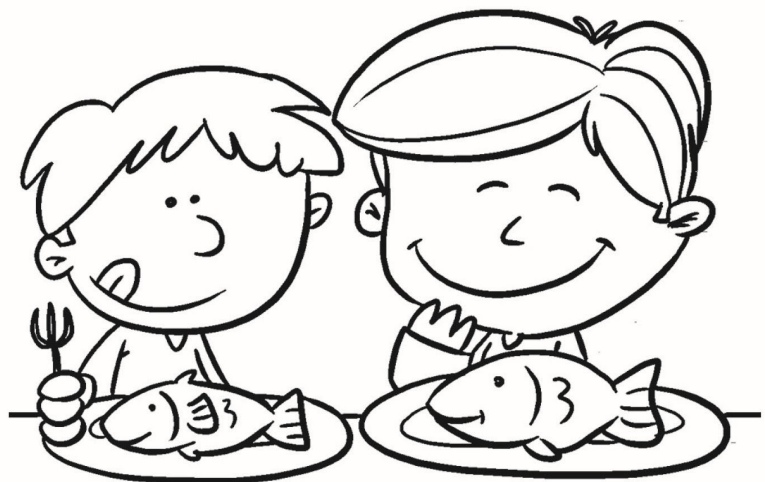

Sharing the Gospel

Today you filled your basket with five loaves of freshly baked bread and two fish you caught in the Sea of Galilee. You sat down in front of Jesus to hear him better. You shared your food with Jesus and the others nearby. You were amazed when the disciples had 12 basketfuls left over. The disciples gave you two basketfuls to take home with you. Your mother and grandmother were very proud that you shared.

Now color
the picture!
