19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

- Lk 12:39-40

“We’re Going to Sell Out!” Encountering Jesus at Our Youth Conference

“We are going to sell out all the tickets instantly!” That was my spontaneous reaction when I first heard the news: Father Mike Schmitz had agreed to be our keynote speaker for our 2025 Youth Conference in the Diocese of Joliet.

If you do not know who Father Mike Schmitz is, it likely means you do not spend much time online or listening to Catholic podcasts. A priest of the Diocese of Duluth, Minnesota, Father Schmitz has become one of the most recognizable Catholic voices in the digital world. His Bible in a Year and Catechism in a Year podcasts have touched millions of lives. With a rare mix of clarity, humor, and conviction, he brings the Faith alive to all generations.

And that is exactly why we were elated when he was chosen as one of the speakers for our inaugural Steubenville Joliet Youth Conference. Yet long before a speaker was booked or ticket sales opened there was a dream to bring a Youth Conference to our diocese. For years, teens from the Diocese of Joliet had been traveling long distances to experience dynamic Catholic conferences hosted by Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio. The fruit was undeniable: renewed faith, deep conversions, and young people stepping into lives of discipleship. We began to ask, what if we brought that encounter home? What if we did not just send our teens away to find Christ, but invited Christ into our own backyard?

So, we did it. With prayer, planning, and no shortage of volunteers, collaborators, and donors, the Steubenville-Joliet Youth Conference took place on the weekend of June 27 - 29, 2025, at Benedictine University in Lisle, Illinois. The response was overwhelming.

Nearly 2,000 teens, plus chaperones and youth ministers, filled the campus. More than 1,700 confessions were heard. Parishes that had never connected before were praying side by side. There were moments of joyful chaos with laughter, dancing, and games, and moments of reverent silence that moved even the most skeptical hearts. One youth minister told me, “It felt like this conference had been running in our diocese for ten years.” And in a way, it had, only in prayer and in the longing of many hearts.

From Friday evening to Sunday afternoon, our young people were immersed in an experience centered around Christ. There was music and praise, compelling keynote talks, breakout sessions for young men and women, and powerful times of small group reflection. But it was Saturday night’s Eucharistic Adoration that left the deepest mark. I watched as Jesus in the monstrance was processed through the crowd. Two thousand voices quieted. Two thousand hearts opened. Christ was truly present—not only in the Eucharist, but also in their lives.

The weekend concluded with the Sunday closing Mass, which I had the privilege of celebrating. After the final prayer, Father Mike Schmitz stepped forward and invited anyone who was not yet baptized, but who had felt stirred by the Lord over the weekend, to come forward to receive a special blessing. He then invited any young people who were considering a vocation to the priesthood or religious life to do the same. Slowly, and then more confidently, over 100 teens stood and came forward. Some were weeping, and others were smiling with unapologetic joy. As I extended my hands in blessing over each group, the entire crowd prayed for them too.

Sometimes, I worry that if a young person loves God and wants to participate in the sacramental and communal life of our Church, they can feel like an anomaly or like they are the only ones with this desire. And that can be isolating and discouraging for them. Yet, at this Youth Conference, Christ was working in their hearts, and emboldened their steps toward faith, hope, and the future with the Church. Looking out at the participants, I saw joy, renewal, and courage. These teens were not just attending a Church-sponsored youth conference. They were meeting the Lord and being sent out as disciples.

I thank the many partners who made this possible, such as our parishes, our Department of Catechesis & Evangelization, Franciscan University of Steubenville, and of course Partnership For Youth who organized the logistics of the conference. Together, apostolates, higher education, and the local church can work together to build the Kingdom of God.

We are committed to building something sustainable and Spirit-filled for the youth of our Church. I am pleased to announce that the 2026 dates for our next Youth Conference are already set: June 26 - 28, 2026, again at Benedictine University. Praise be to God, it is that popular! So, stay alert for when those tickets go on sale, because if this year was any indication, they will not last long.

FR. LEE BIBLE STUDY

In our next session, we will take a look at one of the more intriguing passages in St. Paul's letters, Romans 9-11. In these 3 chapters, Paul struggles with the rejection of Jesus as Messiah by most of the Jewish people, and works out in some detail how eventually both the Jewish people and the Gentiles (non-Jewish people) will come to acknowledge Christ as Messiah, Lord and Savior. Our session will go from 7:00-8:30 PM in the Great Hall on Thursday, August 28. Please read over the Romans chapters before that time. See you there!

EARTH CARE NEWS

We might think our daily home habits are harmless, but some quietly contribute to environmental harm. We leave devices plugged in all day, run half-empty loads of laundry, or rely too often on single-use products. These small choices can add up fast, but we don't have to overhaul our entire lifestyle to make a difference.

For example, exfoliating scrubs may feel great, but many contain microbeads, which are smaller than a grain of sand, but let tiny plastic particles slip through, polluting rivers and oceans, harming marine life and making its way into the food chain.

CHOOSE MICROBEAD FREE products! Another example is letting food waste go to landfills. Food breaks down in landfill without oxygen and releases methane, a greenhouse gas more than 28 times more potent than carbon dioxide. COMPOSTING food scraps is the environmentally sound way to go.

Plastic is everywhere but we can try make a small difference by choosing glass, reusable bags and compostable bags. Just SAY "NO TO PLASTIC" as often as possible.

NEXT EARTH CARE MEETING is August 13

Family Faith Formation welcomes MaryAnn H. Armstrong to our Ministry Team.

MaryAnn grew up in Naperville and has been a member of St. Elizabeth Seton for 25 years. She received her First Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation at SES.

She has led our Art & Environment Ministry, as a volunteer, since 2024.

Her love of Christ and His beautiful creation has blessed our Church and Sanctuary space with meaningful décor in each liturgical season.

Recently MaryAnn travelled to Uganda, Africa to serve with Dolores Bopp-Potterton and Sherry Elliott. This Mission Trip left a lasting impression on MaryAnn. She was overwhelmed by the JOY and gratitude of the people. Although they have few worldly possessions, they are filled with the presence of the Holy Spirit. MaryAnn is a compassionate, energetic disciple who is delighted to serve our parish family as we journey together toward Heaven.

Please join us in welcoming MaryAnn!
