Communion for Homebound

If someone in your family is unable to attend mass and would like to receive communion in their home, please call Felicia at (630) 416-3325 or email secretary@sescatholic.org.

Considering Becoming Catholic? Hear about OCIA from one of our new Catholics:

"Every time I attended Mass with my family, I felt something I couldn't explain. It wasn't loud or dramatic, just a gentle tug on my heart that kept drawing me back... Going through OCIA helped me realize that God had been patiently calling me all along... receiving Confirmation and my First Holy Communion in April was one of the most beautiful and life-changing moments of my life. As I received the Eucharist, I felt a peace, joy, and closeness to God that is difficult to put into words, and in that moment, I knew without a doubt I had made the right decision. My faith is no longer just something I believe, but the foundation of how I want to live my life. Looking back, I realize that gentle tug on my heart wasn't just a feeling. It was God patiently calling me home; saying "yes" to Him has been one of the greatest blessings of my life."

Adoration Chapel

~During Ordinary Time ~

It's August and school has just begun!! Perhaps you might also think, "It's time to go Back to the Chapel as I didn't really make time for Jesus this summer."

Would you like a moment of peaceful reflective time? Do you wish to pray for your children to experience a successful year? The Chapel is available for as much or as little time as you need and all you must do is just open the door! Walk into the calm and breathe in the solitude.

Decide to go just one time and embrace the unexpected. Simply gaze at Our Lord in silence and let HIS presence surround you.

HOURS: Sunday – Saturday 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Ending Hunger in Our Community

SES Loaves & Fishes Ministry Needs Your Help

Packaged and canned foods as well as personal care items and cleaning products are always needed for the Loaves & Fishes food pantry. Deposit all donations on the wood cart located on the lower level between the stairs and the entrance to the boys restroom. Volunteers will then transport the items to the Loaves & Fishes food bank.

No fresh food of any kind will be accepted.

Please consider donating on a weekly or monthly basis if possible. For those of you that donate directly to the food bank save yourself the trouble of driving to Loaves & Fishes, the parish has a committed group of volunteers who will deliver your donations to Loaves and Fishes for you.

EARTH CARE

Almighty God, we pray for all those who are currently suffering from extreme weather.

In particular, we ask you to protect those who do physically demanding work outdoors. Enlighten employers so that they may allow their employees to seek refuge in a safe and cool place, prioritizing their health over their own financial interests.

Protect all the most vulnerable: the elderly, children, the sick, and the homeless, and those in regions facing extreme weather events.

We pray for our communities, that, in this challenging time, we may rediscover the value of solidarity and brotherhood, so that we may help one another, as we are all God's creatures. We ask this through Jesus Christ.

Amen. (Taken from Laudato Si' Movement)

In the lower level you will notice a cart with containers for things we collect that Earth Care is able to recycle. Listed below are some of the items we accept.

Commercially made music CDs and DVDs with cases; inkjet cartridges (no toners), hearing aids, glasses without cases, crayons, LP records 45 and 78, keys, yarn, plastic bread ties, pop tops, metal jewelry, Lego brand bricks, NEW school supplies, NEW art supplies, UNUSED paper, NEW office supplies, (non-working writing utensils can be brought to Staples stores. We will continue to recycle plastic bags. The WSCP was able to obtain a bench made with the plastic SES was able to give.

Our Used Book Sale will be held the weekend of October 17/18.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Does God ignore or act a bit rough with you? Jesus crosses the border into the pagan region of Tyre and Sidon, the territory long outside the covenant. There, a Canaanite woman calls out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David.” At first, he is silent. Then he rebuffs her. “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” But the Church Fathers saw this not as an insult but as an initiation. Christ draws out of her heart a deeper faith.

She presses on. “Please, Lord, even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Jesus’ silence and response solidify her humility and trust. She thus becomes a model for prayer for centuries of Christians. St. Augustine said she shows how sinners come to grace by moving from silence to humility to perseverance.

This woman is the Church. She is you and me. She is every soul who dares to cry out from the margins, who endures divine silence until it turns to compassion. When Jesus says, “O woman, great is your faith,” it is the joyful cry of God discovering faith where the world least expects it. Even the smallest crumb of Your mercy, Lord, is enough to heal the soul. Do we have the courage to show faith like that?

— Father John Muir

Prayer

Jesus, I believe you can help.

Mission for the Week

When I hear a siren, I will pray for the people inside the ambulance.

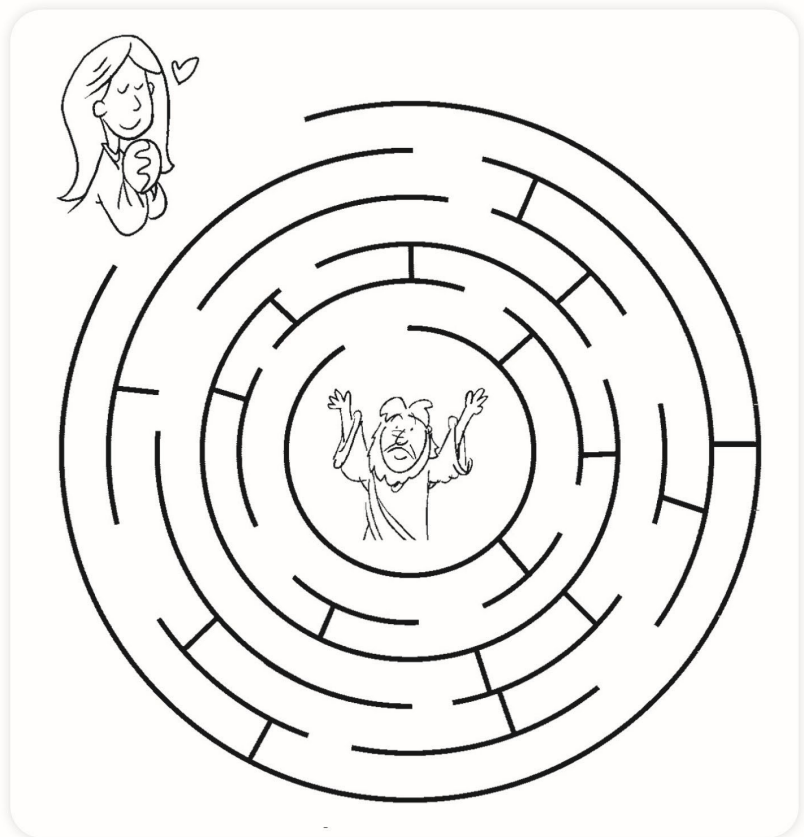

Sharing the Gospel

A woman begged Jesus to cure her daughter who was possessed by demons. This lady believed that Jesus could cure her daughter. He cured her daughter because of her faith. Ask God to help someone you know who is very sick. Ask God to help the homeless find jobs so they can pay for a place to live. Ask God to help you and your sisters and brothers play without fighting. He will help because of your faith.
